The Fresno Superior Court Main Courthouse remains without power as of Monday evening, August 17, 2020. The cause is still being determined at this time. Though the extent of damage is still being assessed, the Court anticipates the Main Courthouse closure to extend through Wednesday, August 19, 2020. During this time, in-custody arraignments will be heard in Departments 95 and 96, located at the North Annex Jail. All other matters will be rescheduled and parties will be notified of the new date.

This temporary closure is for the Main Courthouse only. All other court locations will continue to operate as scheduled.

Further information will be provided as it becomes available.
