

Need help with issues of child support, child custody, visitation, paternity, divorce, legal separation, nullity,
spousal support, elder abuse or domestic violence?

Superior Court of California, County of Fresno's

Self-Help Center

is available to provide information and assistance with your family support or family law case.
There is no charge for these services.

The office is located on the first floor of the BF Sisk Courthouse.

Office hours are Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday
8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. We are closed on Wednesday.

Customers are assisted on a first come first served basis. Upon arrival at the self-help center customers must wait in line to have their name placed on the assistance list for the day. The number of names placed on the list varies depending on the available staff for the day. When the maximum number is reached the list is closed for the day. Once your name is placed on the list you will need to wait in the waiting room until your name is called.

Please note we suggest that you come to the office at or near 8:00 a.m. to increase the likelihood that you will be placed on the assistance list for the day. The assistance list often closes for the day before 10:00 a.m.

Once the list is closed for the day we will continue to answer questions and provide information and forms at the front window but will be unable to provide more in depth assistance.

The Self-Help Center sets appointments in very limited circumstances and only after prior assessment by an examiner, staff attorney or judicial officer.
