Petitioner states: One of Mary's children, Warren Leslie Davis, has filed a petition to remove her as executor of the decedent's estate.

Status report:

- Decedent died testate a resident of the County of Tulare, CA. Petitioner, as the anticipated trustee of the testamentary trusts to be established upon distribution of the decedent's estate, is the sole beneficiary of the estate. On 10-18-10, the decedent's will was admitted for probate and Petitioner was appointed Executor with full IAEA, and letters were issued on 10-19-10.
- No creditor's claims have been filed.
- Inventory and Appraisal cannot be filed until both the elder abuse action and partnership action are concluded, as the primary issue in both centers around disputes regarding ownership interests. A partial I&A was submitted to the probate referee in Jan. 2011; however, it was not filed. Counsel is unaware of the reason why. Further inquiries will be made.
- Under IAEA, Mary signed a Transfer and Assumption Agreement involving John Deere Construction and Forestry Company for a skid loader and by such agreement transferred a contract dated 12-12-07 to Whitney Oaks Dairy, the family partnership. Notice of Proposed Action was given to all persons whose interest was or may be affected by the transfer and no objections were served; therefore, the contract was transferred on or after 1-25-11.
- The estate is not in a condition to be closed because a final I&A and other related documents (i.e., tax returns) cannot be completed until the partnership action has concluded and the time within which to file creditor's claims may not have expired.
- Mary estimates that the additional time needed to close this estate administration will not exceed six (6) months.

Mary prays for an order granting a six (6) month extension to close estate administration and such further relief as the Court deems appropriate.

Age: 2	TEMPORARY GUARDIANSHIP EXPIRES 1-22-13	NEEDS/PROBLEMS/COMMENTS:
	PATRICIA KILPATRICK , Maternal Grandmother, is Petitioner.	Continued from 10-30-12.
	ELAINE THOMAS , Paternal Grandmother, is Temporary Guardian.	Minute Order 10-30-12: Ms. Attashian is also appearing specially for Attorney Martin Gamulin who is representing the father. Ms. Attashian informs the Court that the father was not provided notice. Matter continued to 1/22/13 due to lack of notice to the father. The Court directs Ms. Attashian to advise Mr. Gamulin that he is to be present at the next hearing on 1/22/13. Continued to 1/22/13.
Cont. from 103012	Petitioner's Ex Parte Petition states she has been active in Zachary's life since he was born; however, she has been denied visits since the 7-19-12 settlement agreement between the temporary guardian and the mother. Petitioner was present at that hearing, but no one discussed her visitation rights. Petitioner previously had unsupervised overnight visits, and both she and Zachary enjoyed them. He did not cry when being left with her. The visits were separate from Rachel's visits because Rachel wants to see Zachary by herself.	Note: Per Minute Order 7-19-12, Temporary Guardianship to remain in place until 1-22-13 pursuant to a settlement agreement as stated on the record.
Aff.Sub.Wit.	Petitioner states Elaine previously told her that all she had to do was call to see Zachary, but when she requested to see him on 8-19-12, she did not respond. She sent follow up emails (attached), and received a message that she couldn't see him because someone else was visiting that day. Instead, she offered a day that she knew Petitioner could not visit because she was returning to San Jose.	Per Order After Hearing filed 7-31-12, Mother (Rachel Stauffer) to have unsupervised visitation every Saturday for three months, and overnight visits thereafter. The order also contains provisions for various holidays and states the father's visitation must be supervised. The trial date was vacated, and a review hearing was scheduled for 1-22-13.

Janet Appleton filed a supporting declaration indicating that her home is open for visits.

Petitioner filed a supplemental declaration on 10-19-12 indicating that since her petition, she has been refused visits unless they are with the mother. Zepure Attashian, attorney for the temporary guardian, told her the reason her visits are being refused is because Petitioner intimidated the temporary guardian by saying she was having her followed. This accusation is not true.

Petitioner states the temporary guardian knows that Rachel (Mother) will not allow Petitioner to see Zachary during her visits because she is upset that Petitioner supported the petition for guardianship, and feels that if Petitioner is there, Zachary will not bond with her. The temporary guardian's refusal to let Petitioner see Zachary appears to stem from the fact that she was told by Janet Appleton that Petitioner was retiring and planned to move to Fresno to see her daughter and grandson more frequently. Ms. Appleton thought the temporary guardian would be pleased to hear that, but instead was distressed.

Petitioner states she has never been a threat to Zachary or to Elaine Thomas (temporary guardian).

Petitioner proposes a revised visitation schedule. See Declaration.

1. Petitioner filed "Proof of Personal Service" showing service on the attorneys for Temporary Guardian and Mother, but the parties were not served directly with a Notice of Hearing.

Response to Objection to Report of Administrator of Insolvent Estate and Request for Final Discharge filed 07/02/12 by the Public Administrator/Petitioner states: The Deputy Public Administrator assigned to this matter was Noe Jimenez. He conducted the following investigation to determine the lack of assets in the estate:

- a. He twice went to the property at 3039 North 7th Street, Fresno, CA 93703 to meet with David L. Jimenez (decedent's son). He left his business card for David to contact him regarding the estate as Noe does not have David's phone number. Noe never received a return call from David or any other response to his business cards.
- b. He spoke by phone to Conrad (decedent's son), who provided details of the decedent's assets. Conrad reported that his father deeded the real property to him a couple of months before he died. Noe verified this transaction with Chicago Title. The employee handling the transaction had no concerns about the decedent's capacity to transfer title to his son.
- c. Conrad further reported that the decedent had also given him some personal items before his death, including his service revolver, badge, and similar items. Conrad further reports that when their father died, his brother David removed Raymond Sandoval (decedent's foster son) from the house on North 7th Street. Conrad reported that his father had some items in the residence but David would not allow him to enter the residence, even though the property belonged to him. Conrad confirmed that all personal items were transferred months before the decedent's death.
- d. Noe spoke with David Camenson, attorney for the Objectors, on three separate occasions. Mr. Camenson never asked about or offered information about any assets.
- e. Noe spoke to Conrad regarding the vehicles. Conrad confirmed that the decedent gave David's daughter, Janet Sellers, a Ford Windstar by signing a DMV form in July 2011. He further reported that the decedent gave Conrad's ex-wife, Anna DiFalco, the 1987 Toyota Cressida four years before the decedent died. Although the Objectors provided title to two vehicles, investigation revealed that neither belonged to the decedent at the time of his death.

Based on this information, Petitioner prays that:

1. The objections of David L. Jimenez and Raymond Sandoval be denied in their entirety; and
2. The Public Administrator's report be settled as prayed.

Response of Conrad Jimenez to Objection to Report of Administrator of Insolvent Estate and Request for Final Discharge filed 07/02/12 states: the two vehicles objectors refer to in their objection were not owned by the decedent at the time of his death as he had transferred ownership of both of them. The vehicle identified as a 1987 Toyota was transferred in 2009 to Anna Maria DiFalco and the 1995 Ford was transferred to Janet Sellers. Respondent further states that as to the "personal property" which is not specifically itemized in the Objection, he is personally aware that most all of the personal property of the decedent was either disposed of by the decedent or had little or no value at the date of his death. Even if there is any merit to the claim that the assets referred to in the Objection may be subject to probate court jurisdiction, all items referred to would be included within Probate Code §§ 13100-13116 as personal property that can be disposed of by the "Affidavit Procedure for Collection or Transfer of Personal Property". Therefore, even if the personal representative could assert ownership or control over any specific personal property asset, by his/her consent there would be nothing in a probate estate to administer. Further, the continuation of an essentially valueless estate could expose the estate to charges and expenses, which it should not incur and cannot afford. If the Objectors have any further information in reference to alleged "estate assets" they can and should communicate that information, with supporting documentation, to the public administrator. To the extent that the miscellaneous personal property described in the Objection is alleged to be the only basis to retain the personal representative, these are insufficient grounds to require the continuation of this probate proceedings. Respondent requests that the Objection be overruled and that the request for discharge by the public administrator be granted.

Supplemental Report of Administrator of Insolvent Estate and Request for Final Discharge filed 10/09/12 states: Upon the Objectors providing more information to the Petitioner, the Petitioner conducted further investigation including interviewing several additional people. The further investigation yielded no new information and Petitioner refers the Court to their Response to Objection filed 07/02/12.

The Public Administrator Prays for an Order that:

1. The final report be settled, allowed and approved as filed on 05/30/12; and
2. He be discharged as administrator of this estate.
