	ORRIN FULLER, father, objected and the Petition Court set the matter for a settlement conference on 07/02/14. The temporary remained in place. On 08/12/14 the parties held a status hearing. Minute Order from 08/12/14 states: The parties agree to a 6 month guardianship. The child shall be enrolled in counseling. The therapist shall submit a report to this Court. The father shall enroll in a parenting class, anger management and a 52 week batterers treatment program. The father shall have supervised visits, supervised by Nancy Fuller. Attorney Miller will prepare an Order after Hearing with visitation and phone schedule. The temporary guardianship was extended to 02/12/15. Petitioner states that the current visitation schedule allows for supervised visits with the father in Ventura County (supervised by Nancy Fuller), the father is supposed to reimburse Petitioner the mileage spent based on IRS mileage guidelines. Petitioner states that the visits are hard on the minor and she is typically very tired after travelling the nearly 5 hours each way for the visits to take place. Petitioner states that it takes the minor a few days to recover from the visits and she is exhausted at school the next day. Additionally, Petitioner states that the father has not followed the Court order on several occasions which constitutes a change in circumstances. Further, the Father has not reimbursed any mileage to Petitioner. On 09/14/14 Petitioner drove the minor more than 300 miles to visit and the father never showed up. Because of the minors age, the length of travel and the Father's inability to attend or reimburse Petitioner for the visits, Petitioner requests that the current visitation order be modified to supervised visitation, at a supervising agency in Fresno to be paid for by the Father.

First Supplement to Petition to Compel Account filed 10-22-14 states Attorney Gilbert Fleming continued to assist the trustees until about January 2014. Thereafter, Mr. Fleming continued to principally administer the trust from Fresno County, where the decedent resided and where both trust accounts and real property were located.

Petitioner is informed and believes that the remaining assets consist of a very small amount of money in the trust account, the trustee having depleted the account while still residing in Fresno, and the trust's interest in an investment fund.

No petition to transfer administration has been filed pursuant to § 17401 and Section 12.05 of the trust. Accordingly, administration continues to be Fresno County and venue is proper in Fresno County.

Though counsel for petitioner have repeatedly inquired as to whether the trustee has retained new counsel after Mr. Fleming withdrew in January 2014, Petitioner is informed and believes that the trustee has not, and remains unrepresented.

The following additional Examiner's Notes remain noted for reference:

Probate Code §17002 states:

17002. (a) The principal place of administration of the trust is the usual place where the day-to-day activity of the trust is carried on by the trustee or its representative who is primarily responsible for the administration of the trust.

(b) If the principal place of administration of the trust cannot be determined under subdivision (a), it shall be determined as follows:

(1) If the trust has a single trustee, the principal place of administration of the trust is the trustee's residence or usual place of business.

(2) If the trust has more than one trustee, the principal place of administration of the trust is the residence or usual place of business of any of the cotrustees as agreed upon by them or, if not, the residence or usual place of business of any of the cotrustees.

If Mr. Fleming withdrew as counsel for the trustees, how did administration of the trust continue in Fresno without him? Pursuant to Probate Code §17002, the principal place of administration follows the trustee.

§17400 applies to trusts that are already before the Court. That is not the case here, and the trust section referenced does not appear to require petition to the Court for transfer. The trust has never been before this Court.

If Mr. Fleming's former representation of the trustee is the basis for Fresno as venue, Mr. Fleming is entitled to Notice of Hearing on Mr. Fleming at least 30 days prior to the hearing pursuant to §17203 and §1214.

Also, Petitioner has now listed herself, along with her two siblings and their addresses, as all persons entitled to notice, but Petitioner still has not provided her own address to the Court. The names and addresses of each person entitled to notice are required pursuant to §17201. Need a list complete with Petitioner's address.

Octavio Ruelas DOD: 6-7-06	IRMA HICKS, a Co-Trustee of the Octavio and Mary Ruelas Family Trust, is Petitioner.	NEEDS/PROBLEMS/COMMENTS:
Mary Ruelas DOD: 6-11-14	Petitioner states she and JESSE JOE RUELAS were named as joint successor trustees; however, since Mary Ruelas' passing, Jesse Ruelas has not been abiding by this provisions of the trust and has been making decisions regarding trust property without Petitioner's approval or knowledge.	Minute Order 12-1-14: The Court orders that the home needs to be vacated per the trust no later than 12-31-14; the Trustees have the responsibility to rent the property with the revenue going into the Trust account.
Cont from 120114	Article VIII, Section C of the trust provides a life estate in the trust property located at 61 N. DeWitt Ave., in Clovis to Angela Ruelas, and states that should Angela Ruelas choose not to live in said property or upon her death, the property shall be held in trust with any income distributed in equal shares to the seven heirs, approx. 14.28% each.	The following items remain noted:
Aff.Sub.Wit.	Petitioner states Angela has indicated she would be granting residency in the property to Christina Ruelas, who is Co-Trustee Jesse Ruelas' daughter. Angela indicates she has made personal arrangements with Christina regarding rent and the monies are being collected by Angela without any benefit to the trust.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. The Court may require 30 days' notice to Christina Ruelas pursuant to Probate Code §17203(c) or other applicable law.</li> <li>3. Need order pursuant to Local Rule 7.1.1.F.</li> </ol>
✓ Verified	Petitioner states the beneficiaries, all siblings, cannot come to an agreement as to whether this is an acceptable method for Angela to secure her life estate.	Reviewed by: skc
Inventory	Petitioner states that according to the provisions of the trust, if Angela Ruelas chooses not to live in the home, it reverts back to trust property and is under the exclusive control of the trustees to determine the appropriate resolution regarding the property. Co-Trustee Jesse Ruelas' position is that Angela has the right to have anyone in the property she wishes during her life estate, even if she is not living in the home. This causes Petitioner concern regarding his motives, since the person living in the home is his daughter. She is receiving a great benefit from living in the home at the expense of all the beneficiaries.	Reviewed on: 1-20-15
PTC	Therefore, Petitioner requests instructions regarding the life estate of Angela Ruelas. Considering her non-compliance with the provision indicating that she must live in the home to ratify the life estate, Petitioner is requesting the Court instruct the 61 N. Jesse Joe Ruelas, Co-Trustee, filed Answer and Objections on 11-14-14. Mr. Ruelas denies that he has not been abiding by the provisions of the trust and denies that he has been making decisions without Petitioner's approval or knowledge. The only dispute concerns the life estate. Respondent believes it was his parents' wishes that their youngest daughter, Angela Ruelas, was to be given a life estate in the property and is entitled to possession of the property. Petitioner disagrees.

Respondent states that the fact that he disagrees with Petitioner on this matter is not a reason to remove him as co-trustee. Respondent is concerned that if he is removed, Petitioner will ignore the terms of the trust. Petitioner wanted her son Matthew to have the home, and was upset when their mother asked Matthew to move out. Respondent states Petitioner is also upset that the home was left to Angela and Angela has not agreed to give or rent the home to Matthew.

Respondent states the only assets of the trust that he is aware of are the home and personal property at the home. There is a separate property in Ensenada being overseen by Petitioner; however, Respondent doesn't know if it is part of the trust.

Respondent states Angela has stated that she intends to return to live in the property and believes that she has been moving items into the home. Respondent is informed that Angela has allowed Christina Ruelas and her child to also reside at the home, and they have use of two bedrooms, and the others are for Angela.

Respondent believes the Court should determine the meaning of the trust terms, and this issue about Angela Ruelas' life estate in the property. Respondent denies that he has any hostility or has refused to cooperate with Petitioner as his co-trustee, and states he is not being guided in his actions by the fact that Christina is his daughter. Respondent believes Angela is entitled to the home, and Petitioner wants her out of the home so that she can rent it to her son.

See Answer for additional information. See also Points and Authorities filed concurrently. Respondent prays:

1. That the Court instruct the parties as to what, if anything, Angela Ruelas needs to do to obtain the life estate in the home and property at 61 N. DeWitt;
2. That the Court instruct the parties that Angela Ruelas has been granted a life estate in the home and property at 61 N. DeWitt;
3. That the Court declare that Angela Ruelas' life estate has not terminated;
4. That the court deny Petitioner's demand that Jesse J. Ruelas be removed as a co-trustee of the trust;
5. That Jesse J. Ruelas be reimbursed his costs and attorney fees for responding to this petition and motion; and
6. For such other relief as the Court deems just.

Angela Ruelas also filed an Answer and Objection on 11-18-14.

SEE ADDITIONAL PAGES

Page 3

Angela Ruelas states she does want to live in the home and has moving clothes and possessions into the home and purchasing furniture for the home. She agreed to sublet a portion of the home to a relative, Christina, and her child, in return for Christina contributing to pay the costs of keeping up the house, taxes, etc. Angela states she is keeping the other two bedrooms for her use alone and intends to live in the home while Christina also resides there.

Angela Ruelas states she has already done all that she needs to do to "secure" her life interest in the home and the life interest was granted to her without any conditions precedent that she had to meet before she is given the life estate. It is her understanding that the life estate continues until she dies or chooses not to live there. Neither of these conditions has occurred. Angela requests the Court say what must be done so that she can do it.

Angela Ruelas states she has tried to pay for instucance, gardener, property taxes, and other costs associated with the home, but Petitioner has interfered and made it impossible for her to pay costs directly. For example, the gardener refused to take the payment, stating that Petitioner told him not to take payments from Angela Ruelas. She has also tried to reimburse the trust for various costs and expenses, but Petitioner has refused to cash the check. She has been able to pay utilities and home warranty, and remains ready and willing to pay the other expenses, if Petitioner were not preventing it. Various authority cited.

Angela Ruelas further states that Petitioner entered the home and removed property that was supposed to stay with the home, including furniture, and requests that Petitioner return specific items.

Angela Ruelas prays:

1. That the Court deny Petitioner's request that the court find that her life estate in the property is terminated;
2. That the Court give instructions and declare that she has a life estate in the home and that there were no conditions precedent to her obtaining the life estate;
3. That if the court finds that there are conditions precedent to her obtaining the life estate, that the court give instructions as to what, if anything, she needs to do to obtain the life estate, and give time to meet those conditions;
4. That the Court deny Petitioner's request that the court find that the life estate is terminated;
5. That the Court find that she has not terminated her life estate in the property;
6. That the Court order Petitioner to return the taken property to the home;
7. That the Court deny Petitioner's request to remove Jesse Ruelas as co-trustee;
8. That the Court award Angela Ruelas recovery of her attorney fees and costs of suit;
9. That the Court grant such other relief as is just.
