Status Report filed 10/9/15 states Attorney Hiyama has been in contact with the Dept. of Health Care Services with regard to objections they may have and to getting a written statement that they do not object to the final distribution payout. There remain some minor issues re DHS' concerns with payments made from the estate and DHS is requesting some documentation. The Executor is gathering any and all necessary documents. Therefore at this time it is requested that hearing be continued for 60 days to allow time to reach agreement with DHS.

Status Report filed 12/30/15 states DHS requested documentation on payments made by the estate, which was been provided. At this time Attorney Hiyama and a representative for DHS are in negotiations in order to reach an amicable settlement. An additional 45 days is requested to allow time to reach a mutual agreement with DHS.

Status Report filed 2/26/16 states settlement has been reached with DHS and the office of the Attorney General is preparing a settlement agreement, which is expected to be received in the next two weeks. Mr. Hiyama therefore requests further continuance of an additional 30 days.

10A In Re: The Kermit F. Fish and Rosalie J. Fish Revocable Living Trust
Agreement dated 10/25/1993; Trust A-the Survivor's Trust; Trust B-the Family Trust
Case No. 15CEPR00402

Petitioners state: Except for accounting fees owed to CPA Jim G. Sabbatini and income taxes, all creditors of Rose Fish, the Rose Fish Trust, and the Family Trust have been paid, and the trusts are in a condition for distribution. Mr. Sabbatini provided an estimate of the income taxes due for Rose Fish's 2014 income tax returns and on 3/13/15, a letter and email were sent to Jon Adams, attorney for Joseph Fish, informing him of the Federal and California combined liability of $13,000.00. Mr. Sabbatini timely prepared vouchers for automatic extensions of time to file. Petitioners had a letter prepared to Wells Fargo Advisors from all three co-trustees with instructions to prepare checks for the tax payments. Joseph Fish did not sign the letter of instruction and Wells Fargo Advisors did not issue the checks for the tax payments.

On 4/6/15, Mr. Sabbatini computed the extension payments and Petitioners advanced two-thirds of the extension payments and now each of them seeks reimbursement from the Rose Fish Trust for the Federal income tax payment of $3,169.00 and the California income tax payment of $787.00. Advancement by the co-trustees and reimbursement is allowed under the terms of the trust.

Breach of Trust: Petitioners state the failure of Joseph F. Fish to agree to distribution and to sign the letter of instruction and make the payments of income taxes constitute a breach of trust including breach of duty to administer the trust according to its terms and the duty of loyalty. All three remainder beneficiaries have been damaged by the actions of Joseph F. Fish including legal fees of $5,063.50 for filing this petition and $3,620.00 for legal work in connection with the payment of income taxes. See Exhibits F and G. Petitioners request the court remedy this breach by paying $8,683.50 from the trust estate to Coleman and Horowitz, LLP.

Further, Petitioners request the court remedy the breach of trust by removing Joseph F. Fish as a co-trustee of the Rose Fish Trust and as a co-trustee of the Family Trust.

Under the terms of the Rose Fish Trust pursuant to the Second Amendment, upon the resignation, incapacity or death of any of the co-trustees, the remaining individuals shall serve as trustees. Petitioners requests that they be appointed as the Co-Trustees of the Rose Fish Trust.

Under the terms of the Family Trust pursuant to the First Amendment, upon the resignation, incapacity, or death of a co-trustee, then the remaining individual shall serve as sole trustee. Petitioners request that Phillip F. Fish be appointed sole trustee of the Family Trust.

Accounting Fees: Mr. Sabbatini has submitted invoices totaling $3,295.00 that have not yet been paid, and has also provided accounting services in connection with preparation of an informal accounting totaling $600.00. An estimated final accounting bill is $1,450.00. Mr. Sabbatini seeks a total payment of $5,345.00.

 - b. Pay $8,683.50 to Coleman & Horowitz, LLP to remedy a breach of trust in connection with failing to make distribution of the Rose Fish Trust and to remedy a breach of trust in connection with income tax returns and extensions;
 - c. Pay Jim Sabbatini $5,345 for accounting services;
 - d. Completely withdraw the CDs of the Rose Fish Trust held at EECU;
 - e. Distribute the balance of the Rose Fish trust estate to Phillip F. Fish as trustee of the Family Trust;
6. An order instructing Phillip F. Fish as sole trustees of the Family Trust to:
 - a. Retain a reserve for closing expenses of $9,000.02 and to distribute the balance of the reserve account equally to the beneficiaries without further court order;
 - b. Distribute the trust estate of the Family Trust, including additions from the Rose Fish Trust, to the persons entitled thereto;
7. For costs herein; and
8. For such other orders as the Court deems proper.

Objection provides history and states that during the course of their combined efforts to resolve unpaid bills and determine the full extent of the financial holdings, communications and cooperation between the three siblings reached an impasse after approx. $75,000 had been cooperatively distributed. The CPA who handled the personal and trust tax returns indicated that approx. $341,000 had been spent providing care for their mother. Objector requested the cooperation of his siblings in obtaining full financial disclosure pertaining to expenses actually paid, expenses that remained unpaid, and locating additional undisclosed assets. Each time, Joseph was told not to worry about it, and was denied. Eventually, counsel for each side became involved.

The parties struck an informal agreement whereby Joseph was to receive the cooperation of his siblings by their signing financial authorizations to allow him to obtain copies of the records for the pertinent time frame at his own expense. In exchange, the entirety of the holdings in Trust B were distributed. However, as soon as Trust B was distributed, Petitioners advised they would not cooperate as previously indicated until distribution of Trust A was completed.

Objector contacted numerous institutions and has confirmed a previously undisclosed CD in excess of $18,000, a CalSTRS death benefit in excess of $5,000, and the existence of several other accounts for which information was not released because Objector was not named on the account. Objector hired a forensic accountant to review the limited information obtained. A number of discrepancies resulted in Objector filing Fresno County Superior Court Case No. 15CECG01222 against Andrea K. Fritzen alleging negligence, financial elder abuse, fraud deceit, conversion and breach of fiduciary duty. Petitioners responded by filing this petition.

See Objection for specific disputed issues. Objector states the Court should maintain the status quo pending financial investigation. There is no risk of assets losing value, and nearly $2.5 million has already been distributed equally between the three adult siblings. There would be no prejudice to the parties for this Court to order the status quo be maintained until further hearing on or about 9/15/15. By that time, Objector will have obtained the missing financial documents and the forensic CPA will have had time to evaluate the records to determine the propriety of questionable financial transactions and report back to this court accordingly.

Reply filed 7/7/15 addresses the disputed issues identified in the Objection including accounting fees, distribution, and tax payments, and requests the Court order distribution as prayed.

Status Report filed 2/16/16 by Petitioners Phillip F. Fish and Andrea K. Fritzen states prior to the mediation date, counsel for Joseph Fish notified them that Joseph Fish was not ready to proceed as he had still not received all the banking records subpoenaed. Thus, mediation was continued to 5/23/16 before Judge Broadman at the offices of Petitioners' counsel. See report re details of the civil case. Petitioners state they are very frustrated by the delay. Although Petitioners will wait until after the 5/23/16 mediation, if the matter is not resolved before that date, Petitioners will ask the Court to rule on their motion to remove Joseph Fish as trustee.

Status Report filed 2/26/16 by Co-Trustee Joseph Fish states he agrees that this matter should be continued until after the mediation scheduled for 5/23/16. Mr. Fish states there are a number of issues that have caused various delays, all of which have been resolved with the exception of Wells Fargo Bank. See report for details.

Status RE: Related Civil Matter

	PHILLIP F. FISH and ANDREA K. FRITZEN filed the Petition at Page A on 4/16/15. Also on 4/16/15, JOSEPH F. FISH filed a civil complaint in 15CECG01222. JOSEPH F. FISH objected to this petition. Minute Order 7/14/15 states: The Court does not feel it is appropriate to rule until the proceedings in Civil are litigated or updated information on the matter is provided. Both sides are to file status reports, verified by clients, as to this matter and the civil matter at least two court days prior to 10/27/15. If the civil matter is not resolved by 10/27/15, then the parties are ordered to be personally present in court on that date and provide the name of an agreed upon mediator or the Court may impose sanctions. Status Report filed 10/21/15 by Petitioners Phillip F. Fish and Andrea K. Fritzen states (re the probate matter) that since the last hearing, Petitioners have provided various information to Objector and have attempted to resolve the disputes re whether Jim Sabbatini CPA would continue as the trusts' accountant or whether an alternate could be agreed upon, nominating William Chaltraw, Phil Lozano, and Ginger Lozano as alternate accountants. Petitioners also tried to resolve whether invoices for Mr. Sabbatini's work should be paid from the trust, and attempted to resolve the dispute with Joseph Fish by selecting an independent trustee to take over for the current trustees or otherwise compromising the dispute concerning the fees allowing Joseph Fish to select any of the four accountants he proposed, or one of the following: Terry Stone, John Slater, Tom Ryan, or Doug Sampson. Joseph Fish did not accept either alternative. Petitioners also offered to appoint an independent trustee such as Bruce Bickel, or split trustee obligations, including the CPA costs and equally distributing proceeds from the CDs. Joseph Fish did not accept either alternative. Petitioners' Status Report Re Civil Case: The Court set an OSC Re Stipulation Regarding ADR on 8/22/15. The parties have agreed to have Judge Howard Broadman (ret.) mediate both the civil matter on 2/3/16 and filed the Stipulation Re ADR on 10/19/15. Thus, the OSC will go off calendar. The Court has the following dates scheduled:

- 11/9/16 Mandatory Settlement Conference
- 12/2/16 Trial Readiness Conference
- 12/7/16 Court Trial

Plaintiff Joseph Fish continues to subpoena records from various banks and financial institutions. Petitioners have not conducted any discovery in the civil action due to representation from Mr. Fish's counsel that he would inform Petitioners if any irregularities are discovered and if not the civil action will be dismissed.

On or about 8/18/15, Petitioners requested that Joseph Fish mediate their disputes on 9/22/15 before Judge Broadman. Counsel for Joseph Fish refused, claiming he had not yet had sufficient time to obtain and evaluate the various trusts' financial records.

Petitioners' request for action: Petitioners request the Court continue the status conference and Petitioners' Petition to Remove Joseph Fish as Co-Trustee until 3/3/16 or later to allow parties to complete the mediation scheduled for 2/3/16.

Status report filed 10/22/15 by Joseph Fish states records were subpoenaed beginning in May 2015. In several instances the entity was no longer in existence, but had been absorbed by a new entity, such that Pruco Life Insurance is now Prudential Life Insurance and Wachovia Securities is now Wells Fargo Advisors. Once the identities of the holder of records/accounts were identified, subpoenas were issued. Most institutions requested additional time to produce the records due to the quantity requested (2008-present).

Two institutions initially refused to comply or confirm or identify individuals that were entitled to notice. It was subsequently determined that Philip Fish, although not named in the civil action, was named on some of the accounts. Those subpoenas were reissued to include notice to Philip Fish, who then filed objections.

Some records have been received, and some are expected in November. Mediation is scheduled for 2/3/16 with Judge Howard Broadman (ret.) as mediator. The parties have been unable to resolve matters regarding the billing dispute.

9202	On 01/20/2016, the Fresno County Public Guardian's office received a cashier's check in the amount of $315,248.13 from the former conservator, Carolyn Sadler. Furthermore, the Public Guardian applied to become the representative payee for Mr. Eidson's Social Security benefits, but, to date, that responsibility has not been transferred to the Public Guardian. Therefore, in order to keep receiving Mr. Eidson's automatic deposits, a small amount was left in his former bank account. As soon as the Public Guardian becomes the representative payee, she will request that the account be closed and all remaining funds be transferred.
