		File 2 - Cloud

- Conservatee was Petitioner's sister and the last survivor of Petitioner's family. After her death, Petitioner became despondent and was not able to address the myriad of details associated with the termination of the conservatorship and the probate of the Conservatee's estate.
- At hearing on the accounting on 3-8-11, Attorney Janet Wright appeared on behalf of Mrs. Elaine Cloud and informed the Court that her client had filed for legal separation from Petitioner and Mrs. Cloud wanted to be sure that Petitioner was not waiving certain rights to monies owed by the conservatorship estate to Petitioner. (He has not.)
- At a subsequent hearing, Attorney Joanne Sanoian appeared on behalf of Steven Cloud, Jr., who is a beneficiary of the probate estate, and stated that her client might retain a forensic accountant in this matter.
- Due to Petitioner's pending divorce proceedings, and the result of the work of a forensic accountant in that matter, continuance was granted because such work might answer some of Steven Cloud, Jr.'s questions.
- Because the additional information from other sources developed slowly, on 6-21-12, the Court dismissed the accounting petition with instructions to re-file. Petitioner has now incorporated the information which was made available from review of information in the family law proceeding.
- Since Conservatee's death (DOD: 4-19-04), Petitioner has used his own funds to pay expenses of the estate.
- During the existence of the conservatorship estate, it was common practice for the conservators to directly pay the obligations of the conservatorship estate with the expectation of repayment. In addition, the trustee of certain irrevocable trusts created FBO the Conservatee's nephews, who are the ultimate beneficiaries of the conservatorship estate, advanced the Conservatorship Estate monies to pay the state and federal taxes due at the Conservatee's death.
- To the best of Petitioner's knowledge, all intra-family transactions are accounted for in this accounting. Many of these transactions occurred prior to the Conservatee's death. As a result, the Conservatorship Estate consists of monies payable to the Conservatorship Estate by Petitioner and by closely held businesses of which Conservatee was a co-owner or co-shareholder. These monies payable are set forth in Schedule E on Exhibit B. In addition, there is an obligation that the Conservatorship Estate owes to the irrevocable trusts for the nephews.
- The beneficiaries of the Conservatee's probate estate will be two testamentary trusts created under the Conservatee's will. This Final Account shows distribution of approx. $1,779,985.14 to the trustee of the trusts, which was made in part to repay the trusts for the monies the trusts advanced to pay the Conservatee's estate taxes. On or about 6-27-11, the trustee returned the distributions.
- Petitioner has filed a corrected I&A in this Conservatorship Estate matter, removing an asset that was mistakenly included twice on prior inventories.
- Petitioner was appointed Executor of the Estate of Rhonda Jane Cloud on 8-29-06 in 06CEPR00786.

Notice of Hrg	Petitioner states: that the current guardians have prevented the paternal family from having contact with Irene. Petitioner states that she is concerned for Irene's well-being and stability while in the care of the guardians as they both have criminal history and drug and alcohol abuse is suspected. Because the guardians have isolated Irene, the rest of her family are prevented from seeing how she is doing and the type of environment and behaviors she is being exposed to. Irene's father is scheduled to be released from Chino prison at the end of July. Petitioner states that she is willing to maintain guardianship as long as necessary to ensure appropriate and safe contact between Irene and her parents. Declaration of Keith Huggins, paternal uncle, filed 07/18/12 states that he does not believe that the Co-Guardians are in Irene's best interest. He reiterates that the Co-Guardians have past criminal and CPS history and have been isolating Irene from contact with the rest of her family. Mr. Huggin also alleges that Jacob Gosselin sells Marijuana. He further states that Petitioner Joyce Betz has virtually raised Irene since birth and has been the most stable and constant parental figure in her life. He feels that Joyce Betz is the most appropriate guardian for Irene.
