Not.Cred.	Angela Burke, Daughter, filed an Objection on 1-22-15. Objector states the decedent was survived by three children: Objector Angela Burke, her brother Antonio L. Alcorta, Jr., and her sister, Alicia N. Alcorta. Objector notes that Petitioner did not identify Alicia N. Alcorta in Section 8 of the Petition. Objector objects to the petition on the grounds that: a) Petitioner is not suitable to serve as administrator, and b) there are no assets in the estate. Petitioner has been in and out of jail multiple times over the last several years, is largely unable to read or write, and would be unable to manage the estate. Following the decedent's death, Objector had to assist Petitioner with opening his own checking account and provided him with $200.00 of her own funds. Objector also took responsibility for paying a number of the decedent's bills after her death, including using $21,000.00 of her own money to pay off the balance remaining on the decedent's car loan. Objector states the decedent left no assets to probate. The decedent did not own real property or personal property of any significance. The decedent had a life insurance policy, which Petitioner applied for and collected the whole of the proceeds, believed to be $100,000.00. Objector further points out that Petitioner has failed to identify any purported assets or the value for purposes of calculating bond. In short, Objector asserts that Petitioner fails to state facts sufficient to support the granting of the petition and the opening of a probate, and requests the Court deny the petition.

Supplement to Petition filed 2-26-15 states the character and estimated value is unknown except for real property with estimated value of $1,000.00. Petitioner believes that at her death, the decedent was a co-owner of D. Danz & Sons, Inc. Petitioner has been unable to determine the value of the decedent's 50% interest in that corporation and business.

Petitioner's Declaration filed 2-26-15 states on 10-15-14, his attorney received a letter from Richard M. Aaron, Esq., enclosing a copy of the Declaration of Patricia J. Rader dated 4-18-14, wherein Ms. Rader declared that the decedent relinquished and assigned her entire interest in D. Danz & Sons, Inc., in 1993. As of this date, Antonio Alcorta, decedent's former spouse, the corporation, and Patricia J. Rader have failed to produce such relinquishment. It is highly suspicious that the copy of such document allegedly in the decedent's mother's possession was shredded after the decedent's death. At no time during his marriage did she ever mention that she had relinquished her co-ownership of the corporation. Approximately two months prior to her death, the decedent was having heated arguments with Antonio Alcorta because he was wanting to buy out her interest in the business and she did not want to sell. Said business was equally owned by Mr. Alcorta and the decedent pursuant to their Marital Settlement Agreement. Prior to her death, she was working full time at said business and was involved in the decision-making and management thereof.

Declaration of Angela Burke, Objector, filed 3-6-15 states the accusation that she entered their mother's home and removed all papers, documents, computer, insurance papers, documents of title, before the surviving spouse arrived home is false. She did not enter the home and remove any documentation papers or a computer. After her mother died, her spouse, Ramon Guiba, asked Objector for help because he did not know what to do as to her mother's affairs. At Mr. Guiba's request, Objector reviewed bills and other correspondence for him. She assisted him with payment of expenses, including payoff of the decedent's auto loan, which was over $21,000, and helped him open his own checking account because he did not know how to do so. She provided $200 to him to open the account.

Objector states her mother had a life insurance policy with no named beneficiary. Mr. Guiba presented collected the whole of the proceeds, which totaled $100,000.00.

Mr. Guiba alleges that the decedent was a co-owner of D. Danz & Sons, Inc. Objector is informed and believes that her mother relinquished her interest in the corporation following her divorce in 1990. Exhibit A is a copy of the declaration of Patricia Rader, the decedent's mother, regarding the relinquishment.

Note: If granted, the Court will set status hearings as follows:

- Monday 5-26-15 for filing of bond
- Monday 8-31-15 for the filing of the Inventory and Appraisal
- Tuesday 5-31-16 for the filing of the first account or petition for final distribution

If the proper items are on file pursuant to Local Rules, the status hearings may be taken off calendar.

- Decedent's Bank of the West accounts, safety deposit box, and Credit Union accounts, all are listed in Exhibit B and were assigned to the Trust under the general assignment contained in the Trust terms, but were not put into the name of the Trust; also, all of these assets [except the safety deposit box] were specifically referenced on Schedule A of the Trust; Petitioner asserts that these assets should be deemed assets named in the Trust;
- Petitioner requests that the Court determine that all of Trustor's right, title and interest in the property listed in Exhibit B be deemed assets of the Trust;
- Under the terms of Decedent's Will (copy attached as Exhibit D), the residue of the estate is to be distributed to the Trust; Petitioner submits that Decedent's intent to transfer her assets to the Trust was clearly established and further, probate of the estate would result in the exact same distribution;
- Under terms of the Trust, beneficiaries of the estate are JANET NELSON, AMANDA J. NELSON and ANNA M. NELSON; under terms of Decedent's Will, all assets belonging to decedent were bequeathed to the Trust; in the event Decedent's property was probated, the ultimate beneficiary of the probate estate would be the Trust and the Trust beneficiaries; granting the Petitioner will save judicial resources and will not prejudice any person or entity otherwise entitled to share in a portion of Decedent's estate.

Petitioner prays for an Order that:

1. The ESTHER I. NICHOLS LIVING TRUST dated 7/31/2013 is in existence; and
2. The assets on Exhibit B attached to the Petition are assets subject to the management and control of JANET NELSON as Successor Trustee of the ESTHER I. NICHOLS LIVING TRUST.

DOD: 02/08/2006		JUDITH BOLIN, surviving spouse, is petitioner. No other proceedings Decedent died intestate Declaration filed 03/30/2015 states petitioner and decedent were married on 03/26/2002. The property was acquired on 10/04/1988 by Bobby Jo Bolin and Donna S. Bolin as joint tenants. Donna S. Bolin died on 04/02/1998. Property passed to Bobby Jo Bolin. Bobby Jo Bolin died on 02/22/2006, intestate. Judith Bolin succeeded to the property of Bobby Jo Bolin and through this proceeding is having the Court establish her right to the property. Judith Bolin has been living in the property since Bobby Jo Bolin's death.	NEEDS/PROBLEMS/COMMENTS: Minute Order of 03/30/2015: A declaration addressing the needs was fax-filled this morning; said declaration was reviewed by Ms. Bolin with Mr. Conkey before court, and is orally verified by Ms. Bolin under penalty of perjury in open court. If able, the Court will approve the matter before 04/06/2015. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Declaration filed 03/30/2015 states the real property was held in joint tenancy between Bobby Jo Bolin (decedent) and his former spouse, now deceased, Donna S. Bolin. Petitioner states she is the successor in interest however pursuant to Probate Code § 6401 the decedent's daughter would be entitled to one half interest therefore it appears the property cannot pass via a spousal property petition.</li> <li>It does not appear that the declaration filed 03/30/2015 was served on Barbara Hauser, decedent's daughter.</li> </ol>
