| Not.Cred. | Petitioner states she is a 1/3 beneficiary of the estate. While the other two beneficiaries named in the will, who are the children of the decedent, have higher priority than Petitioner, their whereabouts are unknown to Petitioner. The decedent was divorced from his spouse in 1956. His spouse took the children with her and departed from the State of California. It is believed that they resided in the State of Oregon for a time. The decedent had completely lost contact with his children and this condition existed for over 45 years prior to the decedent's death. At the time of his death, the decedent did not know if his children were living or deceased, did not know their whereabouts, and did not have any last known addresses for either his children or his ex-wife among his records. The attorney conducted an online search for the ex-wife and children, but did not produce any definitive leads. Petitioner is informed and believes and thereon alleges that the decedent's children are unaware of his death and she has no way to contact or communicate with them. | |
