		File 9 - Tyler

Petitioner states, continued:

- Petitioner called for police assistance but she did not know the actual address where the proposed Conservatee was taken;
- The proposed Conservatee is diabetic and none of the people caring for her have any experience or knowledge of how to care for her; Petitioner is concerned that the proposed Conservatee could be very ill or die because of lack of medical care;
- The proposed Conservatee's grandchildren who took her will have access to her bank account and they all have prior [records] for drugs and alcohol and will take her money.

Need Court Investigator Jo Ann Morris' Report.

Objection to Conservatorship filed by Sherri Gillespie, granddaughter, on 4/2/2013 states:

- Her grandmother [proposed Conservatee, Margie Tyler] was brought here [California] with Petitioner's husband without the permission of proposed Conservatee's daughter, Wilma Bolton, from Oklahoma;
- Proposed Conservatee's son, Jerry Tyler, is with the proposed Conservatee while she is objecting to this attempt for guardianship;
- She doesn't know what date the proposed Conservatee arrived, but she received a phone call from Kathy Gillespie saying their grandmother [proposed Conservatee] is at Petitioner's home;
- She went to see their grandmother on 3/26/2013 after hearing news of her being here on Monday night, 3/25/2013;
- When she went to Petitioner's home, the proposed Conservatee looked as if she was drugged and the Petitioner was feeding her a peanut butter and jelly sandwich;
- Petitioner was making dinner for her and mixing up pudding and cookies in it; at this time I was not aware of the proposed Conservatee's Type 2 diabetes; she thought she was being drugged;
- She then took the proposed Conservatee to her house and made a doctor's appointment, and she called the proposed Conservatee's daughter at that time;
- At this time, proposed Conservatee is on medication and doing very well;
- Petitioner does not believe in medicine, and Petitioner informed her that the proposed Conservatee was seeing a healing doctor that prays for her;
- Wilma Bolton, proposed Conservatee's daughter, will be flying here within a week to fly the proposed Conservatee back home, and proposed Conservatee's daughter and son would like the proposed Conservatee to stay in her care until then;
- Petitioner is mad at the proposed Conservatee for taking George [relationship not stated] in three months ago, and she thinks Petitioner is trying to make the proposed Conservatee ill by not giving her medication;
- She spoke to the proposed Conservatee two weeks before she arrived here [in California] and she was in her right mind; now she is not, and this same thing happened in Petitioner's and George's care; she thinks they are feeding her sugar and not giving her medication;

Objection to Conservatorship filed 4/2/20 13 by Sherri Gillespie, continued:

- Petitioner is in financial trouble because her daughter, Paula, took her schizophrenic son away from her because George the boyfriend was abusing him;
- Petitioner's sister, Rowena Stidham, said George raped him and Petitioner caught him and did nothing about it;
- Everyone is afraid that Petitioner is going to hurt the proposed Conservatee; her hope and prayers are that [someone] will call her or the proposed Conservatee's children if needed;
- She only has the proposed Conservatee for another week;
- The proposed Conservatee took her [Objector's] mother and four sisters in when she was 11 years old and the proposed Conservatee is like a mother to her and she would never hurt her;
- When Petitioner's sister Rowena called her, she called Jerry Tyler, proposed Conservatee's son, right away and she came down [to the Court] so she could object;
- She is a good person and she works at Fresno State in the resident's dining hall; she does not have any criminal past as the Petitioner may have stated;
- Petitioner's daughter called Rowena and warned her about Petitioner being at the Courthouse trying to get the proposed Conservatee;
- She is sorry that she has to write this telling the Court that her aunt is crazy, but it is the truth;
- She thanks the Court for taking time to consider her side of the story.
