			File 4 - Diaz

4 (additional page 1 of 2) Josephine Diaz (Special Needs Trust)

Case No. 11CEPR00138

Declaration of Christopher Kennedy in Support of Petition of Trustee for Approval of First Account

filed on 4/20/12 states Josephine Diaz is totally disabled and lives in the home of her sister and brother-in-law. Because of her disability, Ms. Diaz is dependent on others to purchase all of her personal items for her. For reasons of economy, the practice used by the Trustee in this case has been to rely upon Mr. and Mrs. Jimenez to purchase Ms. Diaz's personal items and then to reimburse them. The check was issued to Ms. Jimenez to reimburse for miscellaneous purchases made. The single largest item was for massage therapy provided to Ms. Diaz by Consuela Valencia. Copies of receipts are attached.

Objections to Petition of Trustee for Approval of First Account filed by Janie Jimenez on 4/20/12.

Objector states she is the sister of Josephine Diaz, beneficiary. The beneficiary has lived in Objector's home for more than 15 year and Objector is her full-time caretaker. The beneficiary requires 24 hour care and supervision and requires a wheel chair for mobility.

As indicated in the accounting the Trustee was authorized and instructed by the Court to expend up to $71,436.07 of Trust funds to modify the master bathroom, install new flooring, construct wheelchair ramps in the Jimenez home and construct a storage shed in order to accommodate the Beneficiary's wheelchair and other equipment for her special needs.

The Accounting reports payments to Dan's construction in the amount of $33,796.00 for improvements made to the home through January 31, 2012. Ms. Jimenez believes that significant additional payments have also been made after the accounting period based on statements by the Trustee to her that there is only $5,000 left for the construction project. Ms. Jimenez has asked the Trustee to provide her with all of the contracts, bills and any paperwork in connection with the work being done on her home, but the Trustee has not yet provided any of this information to her. Ms. Jimenez believes that even the $33,796 that has been paid to Dan's Construction is unreasonable. She estimates that the project is only about 20% complete. Moreover, the work completed was poorly done and with the cheapest building materials. As a result, several repairs are already required. Ms. Jimenez estimates that the construction work completed on her home thus far is only worth an estimated $8,000 - $10,000.

Ms. Jimenez believes the Trustee has been unhelpful in holding Dan's Construction accountable for completing the work it was hired to do. When Ms. Jimenez shared her concerns with the Trustee, one of the Trustees simply replied, "It is what it is."

Wherefore, Janie Jimenez prays for an Order as follows:

1. Directing the Trustee to file an Amended First Account and Petition to Settle the First Account to address the deficiencies set forth above.
2. Directing the Trustee to provide Ms. Jimenez with any and all paperwork related to the construction project, including, without limitation, contracts, bills, and any written communication with Dan's Construction.
3. Surcharging the Trustee for any breaches of fiduciary duty arising out of its conduct in connection with the construction project.
4. For attorney fees and costs.

Dept. 303, 9:00 a.m., Tuesday, May 22, 2012

Response to Objection to Petition of Trustee for Approval of First Account Current filed by Perine & Dickens Professional Fiduciaries on 4/27/12 states as of the current date, the Trustee has paid a total of $66,495.90 for work authorized by the court. Of this amount $59,796.00 was disbursed to Dan's Construction. Copies of all contracts were provided to Mrs. Jimenez on April 23, 2012.

In stating that the work completed so far is worth an estimated $8,000 to $10,000, Mrs. Jimenez is in error. As of this date, Dan Arce, has constructed a new handicap ramp to the front door, widened the front door of the home, completely remodeled the master bathroom to make it handicap accessible and constructed a new storage shed in the backyard with a concrete walk. All work completed to date has been inspected and approved by the building inspector for the City of Fresno. In addition, the contractor has purchased floor tile for installation throughout the house and specially constructed extra wide doors.

The work on the home that has not been completed at this time consist of the widening of two interior doorways, installation of two interior doors and the installation of approximately 1,300 square feet of floor tile throughout the home.

Mr. Arce was unable to complete the remaining work because Mr. Jimenez instructed the trustee that he would not allow Mr. Arce back into the home. At this time, the Trustee advised Mr. Jimenez that he would allow Mr. Jimenez to hire a new contractor, but that the Trust would only pay the balance of the undisbursed amount previously approved by the court and that Mr. Jimenez would be responsible for any additional balance.

At the conclusion of the court hearing of April 23, the Trustee met with Mrs. Jimenez and her counsel. In the opinion of the Trustee, all of the items mentioned are ordinary punchlist items which Mr. Arce had previously indicated he is willing to repair if allowed to do so by Mr. and Mrs. Jimenez. The transition between the master bathroom and the hallway is abrupt because Mr. and Mrs. Jimenez did not allow Mr. Arce to complete the installation of the tile in the hallway.

Trustee states, it would be inappropriate for the court to appoint Mr. or Mrs. Jimenez as Guardian Ad Litem in this matter. Although Mr. and Mrs. Jimenez provide a home and very valuable services to Josephine Diaz, they have a separate and distinct financial stake in this dispute which makes it impossible for them to serve as Guardian Ad Litem without a conflict of interest. Since the contract that is the subject of this objection involves the construction of improvements on the Jimenez home, they have a financial interest in maximizing the quality of the improvement, even if the financial cost to the trust is excessive. Thus, if the court should conclude that Mrs. Jimenez's complaints bear further investigation, the Trustee requests that the court initially request an investigation by a Court Investigator to determine if there is in fact sufficient basis to appoint a Guardian Ad Litem.

Petition for Appointment of Guardian of the Person (Prob. C. 1510)

Age: 13	TEMPORARY EXPIRES 5-22-12	NEEDS/PROBLEMS/COMMENTS: Minute Order 3-28-12 (Temporary): Also present in the courtroom is Debra Mistrial and Pierce Jenkins. Father Lloyd Jenkins advises the Court that he has mediation scheduled for today with the mother Debra Mistrial. At the direction of the Court, the courtroom is cleared with the exception of Pierce Jenkins who is directed to remain in the courtroom for further inquiry by the Court. The testimony of Pierce Jenkins is sealed until further order of the Court. Parties having returned to the courtroom, the Court finds that it is in the best interest of the minor to stay with the petitioners. The Court grants the petition and appoints Roland Baker, Terri Baker, and Heather Banks as co-guardians of the person. The temporary expires on 5/22/12. Visitation with father is ordered as follows: every Saturday from 9:00 a.m. until Sunday at 6:00 p.m. Pick-up and delivery to be arranged by the father. Father is ordered to contact the guardians no later than Friday at 6:00 p.m. to confirm his visitation with the minor. Father provides contact information. SEE PAGE 2
DOB: 5-19-99	ROLAND GENE BAKER, TERRI M. BAKER, and HEATHER M. BANKS , Paternal Great-Uncle, Great-Aunt and Second Cousin, are Petitioners.

PTC	Minor Pierce Jenkins was personally served 5-6-12 (without a copy of the petition per Probate Code §1511).
Not.Cred.	Petitioners state Pierce has been in an unstable and unsafe home with his father. Lloyd Jenkins has a short temper and a bad anger problem. Pierce is uncomfortable with his father. Petitioners want to be able to give Pierce the chance to have a good childhood, food in his belly, and a warm place to sleep where he feels safe and secure. For years his father dropped him off with Petitioners when it was convenient, and Pierce wants to live with them. For the past 6-9 months the father has rarely called to check on Pierce, and has stated it is Pierce's responsibility to call him. One of the times he was in Coarsegold with his father, Pierce called and asked to come home, but his father made him stay until he was ready to take him later that night. The father gave Petitioners custodial responsibility for Pierce for school year 2011-2012.
