Petitioner states he and the mother never had a dating relationship, but had a sexual encounter that led to the conception of Dylan. He went into the military thereafter and was aware of her pregnancy, but did not know he was the father until he returned home and voluntarily took a paternity test. In 2006 Petitioner went to reserve status and moved back to Fresno. Since then, Dylan has resided with Petitioner most weekends.

Petitioner states Jessica (Mother) lived with Ms. Lockie (Guardian) until her current marriage, approx. four years ago. When she moved from Ms. Lockie’s home, she took Dylan with her. Towards the end of 2011, Jessica and her husband were exhibiting behavior that put Ms. Lockie on notice that they may be using drugs again, such as items missing from their home, including Dylan’s guitar, tv, game console, and other household furniture and furnishings. Petitioner also started noticing missing items from Jessica’s home.

Petitioner states Ms. Lockie received information that Jessica’s husband, Ben Walzburg, was committing crimes by stealing other people’s property in Sanger, CA through home invasion robberies and that is when Ms. Lockie took the children with her even though she did not have guardianship of Gwenie. Jessica and her husband have been renting a home from her grandfather and are behind on the rent, but have not vacated the premises although they are currently staying in San Luis Obispo at a rehab program (“supposedly”). However, Jessica moved Dylan’s school and had Dylan clean out his desk, but they never notified his Guardian, Ms. Lockie. Ms. Lockie alleges she has no knowledge of the planned abduction.

Thereafter, Jessica and her husband went to the SLO area to stay with his parents and attend an outpatient methadone rehabilitation program and the children have been visiting Jessica on weekends transported by Jessica’s father and monitored by her in-laws.

Petitioner states Dylan has been attending Gibson elementary in Fresno since Kindergarten and it is the only school he knows and is used to.

As stated above, Jessica is temporarily residing in the SLO area (Arroyo Grande) to attend a program. Dylan had been staying with her in Fresno and visiting Petitioner every weekend until her drug abuse was discovered and then he came to live with Petitioner permanently. The current Guardians feel Dylan should be with Petitioner rather than them if appropriate.

Dylan is aware of his mother’s drug problem and has made statements like “they are not doing drugs anymore” and he has seen his mom cooking something that looks like sugar and has seen a straw and a plate that she uses for drugs. Dylan led Ms. Lockie to the house where Jessica and her husband were buying drugs. Petitioner states their drug of choice is Oxycontin. Dylan is also aware of the missing items from the home. Jessica has told Petitioner “I am a better mother on drugs.”

Petitioner states when Dylan came to live with him, his grades were suffering and his self-esteem was low. Since then, he has gained confidence and his grades have improved tremendously. Dylan was playing sports, but quit because his mother did not get him to practices and games on a regular basis. At times, he even missed school because Jessica would oversleep.

Based on the foregoing, Petitioner is requesting termination of the guardianship to allow him to pursue custody in the Family Court. Guardianship is no longer needed for the reasons stated herein.

JESSICA WALZBERG (Mother) filed Objections on 4-25-12. Mother states the sole reason for guardianship was so that her parents could provide insurance for Dylan. Notwithstanding, she has always been able to be the primary care parent, taking full responsibility for his medical, educational, and day to day needs. Prior to Petitioner commencing the family law proceedings, Dylan exclusively resided with Mother outside of Guardians’ residence for nearly six years. Petitioner was not involved in the first five years of Dylan’s life and has never been involved or taken initiative to become involved in any decisions impacting Dylan’s life.

Mother states that she would like the guardianship orders to remain in effect until she is able to establish custody and visitation orders awarding her custody of Dylan and naming her as the primary custodial parent. She is agreeable to terminating the guardianship on the condition she is named the primary custodial parent. She believes this is in Dylan's best interest and consistent with the arrangement Dylan has become accustomed to throughout his life.

Mother is also agreeable to working out a shared co-parenting arrangement with Mr. Regan so that his visits may continue; however, she is not agreeable to Petitioner being awarded primary custody. Mother states Dylan has had difficulties adjusting to the two overnight visits per week with Petitioner and has expressed extreme discomfort with pending extended periods of time with him.

Mother states she did not abduct Dylan as alleged by Mr. Regan. Dylan has resided with her exclusively for nearly six years. Upon being served with notice of the Family Law case, she returned Dylan to her mother's custody and has had regular contact with him.

Mother is agreeable to maintaining Fresno as her residence and allowing Dylan to complete the school year at Gibson Elementary. Many of the statements made by Petitioner are false and objectionable hearsay, and are addressed in her response in the Family Law action.

- A Notice of Proposed Action was mailed, and before the 3/20/2012 date for the proposed action, an objection was received by County Counsel in a phone call from WILLIAM CHARLES WORTHAM, one of Decedent's sons; his objection was not to the price, but rather that it was being sold to his sister;
- Because of the objection that was made, the sale cannot be completed without a hearing and order of the Court pursuant to Probate Code § 10589;
- The CA Dept. of Health Services has a lien on the estate, and all residual proceeds of the estate will go to pay the Decedent's medical expenses that had been paid by the estate;
- There will be nothing left to distribute to any of the heirs [Decedent's 8 children];
- Petitioner therefore requests to proceed with the sale as follows:
  - Gwen Mayfield to take title as her sole and separate property;
  - 6% commission in the amount of $1,350 to be split between buyer's and seller's agents;
  - Property sold on "AS IS" basis except as to title and is to be a cash sale.

Petitioner prays for an order that the Court authorize Petitioner as Successor Administrator of the estate to sell the real property to Gwen Mayfield for $22,500.00.

- Petitioner alleges that as of the summer of 2009, the Decedent or her Trust maintained bank accounts, certificates of deposit, annuities and other financial instruments which had a value in excess of $190,000, and owned precious metals that exceeded $140,000, as well as owned multiple oil leases and royalties as late as 2007 (please to Exhibits G and H);
- Petitioner was recently informed by the Trustee that Decedent had no other assets other than those funds to be received in the settlement of the Arizona case of Patricia Vaughn v. C. Richard Oldham in the amount of $365,000 to be released to Patricia Vaughn as Trustee; thus, a minimum of $330,000 of Decedent's assets have not been accounted for, and the Successor Trustee has therefore failed to comply with her duty to marshal and designate the assets of the Trust;
- Petitioner alleges that Decedent entrusted the Successor Trustee, Patricia Vaughn, with access to, management of, and control of Decedent's assets and money during her lifetime;
- Petitioner further alleges that Decedent was required to file an inventory of her assets in "the Matter of the Guardianship and Conservatorship of Rosalee Shepard Wheeler, in Incapacitated Adult" (copy of order attached as Exhibit I);
- Petitioner believes the Arizona court-ordered inventory was never filed (see 3/29/2012 letter from Shadle & Walsma to Attorney Pape showing Trustee's non-compliance attached as Exhibit J);
- Petitioner believes the Successor Trustee controlled and directed the Decedent in the conservatorship action as well as other aspects of Decedent's personal and financial life; the Successor Trustee was and has been involved in a pattern of nondisclosure and obfuscation of the identity as well as amount of Decedent's assets.

Petitioner prays for an Order:

1. Instructing Patricia Vaughn to prepare and file with the Court an account of the Trust, which she came into possession of either before or after the death of Rosalie O. Wheeler, and which were assets of the Trust;
2. Instructing Patricia Vaughn to petition the Court for a settlement of the account and give notice of the hearing on the petition;
3. Instructing Patricia Vaughn to marshal all assets of the Trust and properly designate the assets as Trust assets; and
4. Awarding to Petitioner attorney fees and costs as allowable by law.

Pro Per Sosa, Luciana Gomez (Pro Per Petitioner, maternal aunt)

Petition for Appointment of Temporary Guardian of the Person
(Prob. C. 2250)

Age: 1 ½ years	General Hearing set for 7/10/2012 LUCIANA GOMEZ SOSA, maternal grandmother, is Petitioner. Father: UNKNOWN; Declaration of Due Diligence filed 5/17/2012; Mother: CARMEN MARTINEZ VILLANUEVA Paternal grandfather: Unknown Declaration of Due Diligence filed 5/17/2012; Paternal grandmother: Unknown Declaration of Due Diligence filed 5/17/2012; Maternal grandfather: Martin Louis Villanueva Maternal grandmother: Maria Inez Estela Gomez Petitioner states she has been in the child's life since birth and has had the child in her care since March 2011 when the mother gave her the child stating she could not care for the child, and the mother is currently incarcerated for possibly four years for carjacking. Petitioner states that though the child's doctor has been allowing her to receive medical care, Petitioner has been told that she must provide proof of guardianship to continue having the child seen by the doctor. Petitioner states that since she had the child for the year 2011, she claimed her on her 2011 tax return and she needs to show proof of guardianship of the child to the IRS. Petitioner requests to be excused from giving notice to (1) the father and paternal grandparents because she has never met the father and does not know his name, and (2) the maternal grandmother because she was deported and she has made no communication with Petitioner, therefore she has no idea of her whereabouts.	NEEDS/PROBLEMS/COMMENTS: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Need Notice of Hearing.</li> <li>2. Need proof of five (5) court days' notice by personal service of the Notice of Hearing and a copy of the Petition for Appointment of Temporary Guardian, or Consent to Appointment of Guardian and Waiver of Notice, for: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Carmen M. Villanueva, mother.</li> </ul> </li> </ol> Note: Declarations of Due Diligence were filed 5/17/2012 for the father and paternal grandparents stating Petitioner never met them. However, the child's last name of "Hamilton" suggests the mother knows the father's identity, and the Court may require Petitioner to perform further diligence in the form of checking the child's birth certificate and asking the mother for the father's name, then doing a search based upon that name.
