Report of Administrator of Insolvent Estate and Request for Final Discharge (Prob. C. 11600)

DOD: 10/10/11	PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR , Administrator, is Petitioner.	NEEDS/PROBLEMS/COMMENTS:
	Petitioner states:
	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR was appointed as Administrator by the Court on 03/06/12. No Letters of Administration were ever issued because Petitioner was able to determine right away that there were no assets to marshal. The initial Petition for probate stated that there were two parcels of real property and bank accounts belonging to the estate. However, Petitioner has determined that the properties were deeded by the decedent and the bank accounts had beneficiary designations. Therefore, petitioner wishes to close the estate, because it is now insolvent. A Creditor's Claim was filed against the estate by David M. Camenson; however, the estate is insolvent and the claim cannot be paid. The estate is in a condition to be closed. 	CONTINUED FROM 07/05/12 Judge Vogt was disqualified in this matter pursuant to 170.1.

Jimenez and Raymond Sandoval states that the assertion that the estate has no assets is false. Objectors state that the decedent held title to two vehicles (a 1995 Ford and 1987 Toyota) as well as numerous other personal property items. Objectors further state that the Public Administrator never contacted either objector (decedent's son and foster son and named beneficiaries in decedent's Will) or their attorney David Camenson. Had Petitioner contacted any of these individuals they would have discovered that the estate was not insolvent, or at least had some assets. Objectors request: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> That the final report of Petitioner not be confirmed or approved; That the Public Administrator not be discharged as Administrator of the Estate at this time; and That the Public Administrator be ordered to continue its research regarding the assets of the estate by at least contacting each beneficiary who may have knowledge of such assets.

Response to Objection to Report of Administrator of Insolvent Estate and Request for Final Discharge filed 07/02/12 by the Public Administrator/Petitioner states: The Deputy Public Administrator assigned to this matter was Noe Jimenez. He conducted the following investigation to determine the lack of assets in the estate:

- a. He twice went to the property at 3039 North 7th Street, Fresno, CA 93703 to meet with David L. Jimenez (decedent's son). He left his business card for David to contact him regarding the estate as Noe does not have David's phone number. Noe never received a return call from David or any other response to his business cards.
- b. He spoke by phone to Conrad (decedent's son), who provided details of the decedent's assets. Conrad reported that his father deeded the real property to him a couple of months before he died. Noe verified this transaction with Chicago Title. The employee handling the transaction had no concerns about the decedent's capacity to transfer title to his son.
- c. Conrad further reported that the decedent had also given him some personal items before his death, including his service revolver, badge, and similar items. Conrad further reports that when their father died, his brother David removed Raymond Sandoval (decedent's foster son) from the house on North 7th Street. Conrad reported that his father had some items in the residence but David would not allow him to enter the residence, even though the property belonged to him. Conrad confirmed that all personal items were transferred months before the decedent's death.
- d. Noe spoke with David Camenson, attorney for the Objectors, on three separate occasions. Mr. Camenson never asked about or offered information about any assets.
- e. Noe spoke to Conrad regarding the vehicles. Conrad confirmed that the decedent gave David's daughter, Janet Sellars, a Ford Windstar by signing a DMV form in July 2011. He further reported that the decedent gave Conrad's ex-wife, Anna DiFalco, the 1987 Toyota Cressida four years before the decedent died. Although the Objectors provided title to two vehicles, investigation revealed that neither belonged to the decedent at the time of his death.

Based on this information, Petitioner prays that:

1. The objections of David L. Jimenez and Raymond Sandoval be denied in their entirety; and
2. The Public Administrator's report be settled as prayed.

Response of Conrad Jimenez to Objection to Report of Administrator of Insolvent Estate and Request for Final Discharge filed 07/02/12 states: the two vehicles objectors refer to in their objection were not owned by the decedent at the time of his death as he had transferred ownership of both of them. The vehicle identified as a 1987 Toyota was transferred in 2009 to Anna Maria DiFalco and the 1995 Ford was transferred to Janet Sellers. Respondent further states that as to the "personal property" which is not specifically itemized in the Objection, he is personally aware that most all of the personal property of the decedent was either disposed of by the decedent or had little or no value at the date of his death. Even if there is any merit to the claim that the assets referred to in the Objection may be subject to probate court jurisdiction, all items referred to would be included within Probate Code §§ 13100-13116 as personal property that can be disposed of by the "Affidavit Procedure for Collection or Transfer of Personal Property". Therefore, even if the personal representative could assert ownership or control over any specific personal property asset, by his/her consent there would be nothing in a probate estate to administer. Further, the continuation of an essentially valueless estate could expose the estate to charges and expenses, which it should not incur and cannot afford. If the Objectors have any further information in reference to alleged "estate assets" they can and should communicate that information, with supporting documentation, to the public administrator. To the extent that the miscellaneous personal property described in the Objection is alleged to be the only basis to retain the personal representative, these are insufficient grounds to require the continuation of this probate proceedings. Respondent requests that the Objection be overruled and that the request for discharge by the public administrator be granted.
