FTB Notice	Daniel J. McCann filed Opposition to Petition on 6-21-13 states four grounds of objection. See additional pages.
	Probate Referee: Rick Smith
	SEE ADDITIONAL PAGES

Page 2

Daniel J. McCann filed Opposition to Petition on 6-21-13 states four grounds of objection:

- 1) California Superior Court does not have jurisdiction to probate Mrs. McCann's will.
- 2) Petitioners have delayed and waived their right to appointment as personal representatives.
- 3) Petitioners are not competent to act as personal representatives because they are wasting and neglecting any assets the probate estate may have.
- 4) Petitioners are estopped from bringing their petition, which should be abated until the trust litigation is concluded.

Authorities cited include numerous cases, statutes, treatises. See objection for facts and details. Objector states the California Court's involvement with the trust does not confer probate jurisdiction. Objector requests that the petition be denied, for costs of suit, and all other proper relief.

NEEDS/PROBLEMS/COMMENTS:

2. The Court may require declination to serve from Daniel J. McCann.
3. Petitioners request appointment without bond and state the will waives bond; however, because they are only two of the three named co-executors, and due to the extensive litigation already in existence, the Court may require bond in the amount of $1,500,000.00. Alternatively, the Court may require waiver from appropriate relatives/beneficiaries, or authority for waiver of bond as requested. (Note: Because Petitioners are also the co-trustees of the trust, waiver may be required from trust beneficiaries.)
4. The Court may require clarification regarding Fresno Business Journal as appropriate publication with regard to Probate Code §8121 (b), since the decedent did not reside here or own property here. Rather, the property that Petitioners state may be recovered is held by Daniel J. McCann, a resident of Vermont, and the Decedent was a resident of Texas.

Note to Attorney: Although the current Judicial Council form "Notice of Petition to Administer Estate" (updated 1-1-13) was used, the publication does not contain the updated language. For future petitions, please remember to note the update for publication.
