(1) Petition to Settle First Account Current of Trustee and for (2) Allowance of Fees and Costs to the Trustee and Its Counsel

Age: 12	RONALD DICKEN, PATRICIA DICKEN, KAREN STEELE, and CHRISTOPHER KENNEDY of PERINE & DICKEN PROFESSIONAL FIDUCIARIES & CONSERVATORS, Trustee(s), is Petitioner.	NEEDS/PROBLEMS/COMMENTS: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> The accounting shows that the trust received a total of $7.82 in income (from interest) during the accounting period. The Court may require more information as to why the income is so low and future investment plans, especially in light of the amount of trustee's fees being paid on a monthly basis. $1,731.25 of the trustee's fees are from 07/2012 – 02/2013, before the Trust was established and is mostly for communications with the various attorney's involved in the litigation that produced the settlement funds and in establishing the special needs trust. The Court may require further information as to whether any fees were paid prior to the Trust being established from settlement proceeds. The Court may require more information as to the appropriateness of the trustee fees in light of the inactivity in the Trust. No disbursements were made and the trust assets appear to be held in interest bearing accounts that required no management. The average monthly fee charged is $510.46 (averaged over the 9 month accounting period), while the average monthly income was $0.87 per month.

- b. Petitioner and Respondent, for themselves and their heirs, representatives, beneficiaries, assigns and successors, shall mutually release any and all claims known or unknown, between them, and each of their heirs, representatives, beneficiaries, assigns and successors, all as more specifically set forth in the parties' "Settlement Agreement and Mutual Release of All Claims" (the "Settlement Agreement") attached as Exhibit "A."
- c. Petitioner shall dismiss the Contested Petition with prejudice within 10 day of the entry of an order by this Court approving the settlement and this Petition.
- d. The Settlement Agreement is expressly contingent on entry of an order by this Court approving the settlement and binding all beneficiaries of the Farley Trust to the terms of the Settlement Agreement.

Petitioner believes the settlement is to the advantage of the trust estate and its beneficiaries for the following reasons:

- a. The settlement will avoid the expense and risk of litigation. The Farley Trust has no funds currently. Petitioner must overcome the burden of proof at trial and there is little, if any, direct evidence regarding the discretion exercised by Ruth Farley during her administration of the Farley Trust. Respondent also contends that the relief sought is barred by statute of limitations. These issues could result in an adverse judgment and no recovery to the Farley Trust.
- b. The settlement will allow Petitioner to distribute funds to all the beneficiaries of the Farley Trust, except Respondent and her heirs.

Wherefore Petitioner prays for an Order of the Court:

- A. Approving the settlement and the terms of the Settlement Agreement, including the releases and dismissal, as fair and reasonable under all the facts and circumstances;
- B. Authorizing petitioner to settle the claims against respondent and execute the Settlement Agreement, binding petitioner and his heirs, representatives, beneficiaries, assigns and successors to all the terms of the settlement and releases set forth in the Settlement Agreement;
- C. Determining and declaring that all beneficiaries of the Farley Trust shall be bound by the terms of the Settlement Agreement;
- D. Reliving petitioner from personal liability to anyone interested in the Farley Trust as a result of the Settlement Agreement.

Petition for Determination of Entitlement to Estate Distribution; Request to Participate in Proceeding as Executor; Declarations of Steve Scott, Nicholas Drews, Pamela Nelson, George Nord and Inge Nord

DOD: 10/21/13	NICHOLAS B. DREWS , Executor, is Petitioner.	NEEDS/PROBLEMS/COMMENTS:
<input type="checkbox"/> Aff.Sub.Wit.	1. Decedent's will (the "Will") dated 10/19/13 was admitted to probate on 02/03/14 and Letters Testamentary were issued to Petitioner on 02/25/14. The estate is currently being administered in this Court.
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Verified	2. Petitioner is the sole beneficiary of the Estate under the Will. Petitioner is decedent's step-son. Decedent married Petitioner's mother, Pamela Nelson, in 1992 when Petitioner was in the 8 th grade. Although Decedent and Pamela Nelson later divorced, Petitioner's relationship with Decedent continued to be that of father and son. Decedent was an only child, divorced, never remarried, and never had any biological children. Decedent's father died when he was young and his mother, adoptive step-father and all of his grandparents predeceased him.
<input type="checkbox"/> Inventory	3. Decedent considered Petitioner to be his son and Petitioner's children to be his grandchildren. In a notarized document decedent left in his files, dated 04/01/08, Decedent stated, "Nicholas Drews mother is Pamela Nelson my wife now divorced. I regret not adopting Nick while married to his mother, I still consider him my son." Decedent and Petitioner maintained a loving relationship throughout Decedent's life. Decedent was proud of Petitioner and spoke of him frequently and fondly to his friends and neighbors. Decedent referred to Petitioner as his son, and to Petitioner's children as his grandchildren.

		File 3 – Nelson

4. Decedent's Will is holographic and Decedent drafted the Will himself, without the aid of any legal counsel. Because of Decedent's lack of legal training, his intentions were not expressed clearly in his Will and there is an ambiguity which arises from the fact that Decedent named an executor, but not beneficiary in his Will. Decedent intended for Petitioner to be both executor and beneficiary of his Estate, and believed that appointing Petitioner as "executor" meant that not only would Petitioner administer the estate, but would receive the estate as well.
5. Decedent's Will references his mother, Virginia M. Nelson's will ("Virginia's Will") and incorporates provisions of Virginia's Will into his own. Decedent was Virginia's only child, and Virginia left the entirety of her estate to Decedent via the Virginia M. Nelson Trust dated January 29, 1992 and Virginia's Will was a pour-over will. Decedent's Will states, "See will of Virginia M. Nelson and delete Virginia and place my name Patrick M. Nelson in all areas. See Patrick M. Nelson and delete Patrick and place Nicholas B. Drews in all areas." Because Virginia's Will is a pour-over will, it does not name a beneficiary, but rather directs her estate to the Trust and named Decedent as Executor. Decedent was the sole beneficiary of the Trust.
6. Prior to his death, Decedent told his friends and neighbors, as well as Petitioner, that he intended his Estate to go to Petitioner, and that he had expressed his intentions in a will. Decedent made an effort at one point to discuss his estate plan with Petitioner, however, during the visit he fell and ended up in the hospital, preventing the conversation from occurring. Decedent was a Vietnam veteran, and due to PTSD, had a difficult time discussing and dealing with death and related affairs. Decedent also insisted on taking care of his own legal affairs in order to save money, even when he was not fully capable of doing so.
7. Pursuant to Probate Code § 11704(b), Petitioner requests that the Court grant him authorization to participate in this proceeding as executor of the Estate by bringing this Petition before the Court to address the ambiguities in Decedent's estate plan. In order to resolve those ambiguities, Petitioner requests that the Court authorize him to present evidence of Decedent's intent. Petitioner has good cause to participate in this proceeding as executor of Decedent's estate, because he cannot fulfill his role as executor and distribute the estate without a determination of who is entitled to that distribution. [See Petition for Points & Authorities]
8. Reading Decedent's Will, Virginia's Will, and the Trust together shows Decedent's intent. Decedent's Will states, "See will of Virginia M. Nelson and delete Virginia and place my name Patrick M. Nelson in all areas. See Patrick M. Nelson and delete Patrick and place Nicholas B. Drews in all areas." Because Decedent received Virginia's entire estate, he assumed that by replacing, in Virginia's Will, Virginia's name with his own and his name with Petitioner's, his estate would go to Petitioner, as Virginia's estate had gone to him. Because Decedent did not understand the legal terminology or how Virginia's estate planning documents operated, and because he received the entirety of Virginia's estate via these documents, he believed that the term "executor", as stated in Virginia's Will, incorporated both roles of executor and beneficiary. Reading the Will, Virginia's Will and the Trust together, the Will effectively makes a gift of Decedent's net estate to Petitioner. If Decedent had intended to solely appoint Petitioner as executor and have his estate flow via intestacy, not only would there have been no good reason to draft and notarize a will, but there would have been no reason to direct that the names be replaced in this way. Reading the documents together comports with both the Probate Code directives that the Decedent's Will is to be interpreted in order to best effectuate the Decedent's intent, and that preference is to be given to an interpretation of an instrument that will prevent intestacy.

9. The reading of the Will further comports with Decedent's actions and statements prior to his death, which indicate intent to leave his estate to Petitioner. Decedent told Petitioner that he intended for Petitioner to serve as Executor, that everything was going to Petitioner, and that he had a will that was clear as to where he wanted the money to go. Decedent told his neighbor George that Petitioner was aware of his wishes for the end of his life, and not to worry because Decedent "had handled it". He mentioned to his neighbor Inge that he was "setting Nick up for the future." Decedent's best friend from childhood, Steve, understood Petitioner to be the beneficiary of Decedent's estate. Decedent liked to shop, particularly through the Home Shopping Network, and he purchased many items for Petitioner and his children. He told his ex-wife Pamela that he ordered things for "Nick and the kids" because, while he had money, he wanted to leave them more than just money, in the form of things he would be remembered by. Decedent told Pamela that his wishes were all in writing, and that "Nick and the kids won't want for anything." All of the assets for which Decedent had named a beneficiary, such as his storage locker and a Merrill Lynch investment account, named Nick as a beneficiary. [Declarations attached to Petition].
10. Because the paramount rule in the interpretation of wills is that a will is to be construed according to the intention of the testator, and not his imperfect attempt to express it, and because Decedent's intent that Petitioner should receive his estate can be seen via a reading of the relevant documents, as well as from Decedent's statements and actions before death, the court should direct distribution of Decedent's estate to Petitioner.

Petitioner prays for an Order of the Court as follows:

1. That Nicholas B. Drews may participate in this proceeding as executor of the estate of Patrick Nelson by bringing this Petition and presenting evidence on the issue of the determination of the persons entitled to distribution;
2. If Nicholas B. Drews is not allowed to participate as personal representative, the court find in the alternative that the Petition is properly brought by Nicholas B. Drews, in his individual capacity as a person claiming to be a beneficiary entitled to distribution; and
3. That Nicholas B. Drews is entitled to distribution of the estate of Patrick Nelson.

File 4 – Huber

- On 2/14/2013, as sole successor trustee and lifetime beneficiary of the SURVIVOR'S TRUST, Decedent allegedly executed a First Amendment to the SURVIVOR'S TRUST, which is the subject of the instant petition (copy of First Amendment to Survivor's Trust attached as Exhibit C);
- Pursuant to the terms of the First Amendment to the SURVIVOR'S TRUST, Decedent purportedly disinherited Petitioner from the SURVIVOR'S TRUST, leaving the residue of the trust in equal shares to Marcia and Ronda;
- Marcia, who resides in Clovis, and Ronda, who resides in Mission Viejo, were nominated to serve as successor co-trustees of the Trust; pursuant to a notice served on Petitioner by counsel for Marcia, Attorney Michael Buettner, the principal place of administration of the Trust is both Fresno County and Orange County; for purposes of this Petition, the principal place of administration of the Trust is Fresno and as such, venue of this proceeding is proper in this Court;

Contest of the First Amendment: Petitioner challenges the validity of the First Amendment to the SURVIVOR'S TRUST on the basis of undue influence exerted over Decedent by Marcia and by PAMELA RIDDELL (Pam), who is believed to have been an acquaintance, associate, and/or agent of Marcia;

- Pam was at all times alleged herein an employee of AMERIPRISE FINANCIAL;
- For most of her life, Decedent was independent and enjoyed good health; following the death of Mr. Huber in 2010, Decedent lived alone in Laguna Hills at Leisure World;
- Prior to and after Mr. Huber's death in 2010, the Trust assets were invested and supervised by RAYMOND JAMES and RORY HUBER, a close family member and financial planner who resides in Des Moines, Iowa;
- With the guidance of Raymond James and Rory Huber, the Trust's investments consisted of a blend of blue-chip stocks, mutual funds, bonds and income-producing vehicles appropriate for Decedent, a woman in her mid-80's;
- Petitioner believes these investments produced a substantial income stream for Decedent, which was more than sufficient to meet her needs;
- In ~2012, Marcia introduced Decedent to Pam, who was then employed by or working on behalf of Ameriprise Financial; Marcia and Pam were both devout members of the Baptist Church and shared similar religious interests and beliefs;
- Pam and Marcia began suggesting to Decedent that Decedent move the Trust's investments to Pam and Ameriprise Financial, and that Decedent invest some of her assets in a religious bond fund associated with the Baptist religion;
- On at least one occasion, both Pam and Marcia, together, met with Decedent at Marcia's home to discuss financial planning;
- In January 2013, Decedent suffered an accident and broke her wrist, and her range of motion became impaired; Petitioner believes Decedent was prescribed and administered medication for pain that affected her cognitive functioning and decision-making ability;
- At or around this time, both Marcia and Pam became increasingly involved in Decedent's personal and financial affairs, insisting that Decedent travel to Fresno for visits and pressuring Decedent to make changes to her investment portfolio and to her estate planning documents;
- Shortly thereafter, at the insistence of Pam and Marcia, Decedent, who was a no point a member of any Baptist Church, invested $30,000.00 in Church Bonds offered by GOLD STAR TRUST COMPANY for the assistance of the Baptist Church; Petitioner believes that these bonds are now worthless;

~Please see additional page~

- Additionally, shortly after Decedent's purchase of the Church bonds, Marcia traveled to Decedent's home in Laguna Hills and drove her to Clovis;
- On 2/14/2013, while staying with Marcia at her home in Clovis, Decedent, with her wrist still broken, purportedly executed the First Amendment to the SURVIVOR'S TRUST, disinheriting Petitioner, her only son; the document was notarized by an acquaintance of Pam and Marcia, who was also a member of their church;
- During that visit in Clovis or shortly thereafter, Marcia and Pam persuaded Decedent to move all of her investments to Ameriprise Financial to be managed by Pam; Pam completely restructured the Trust's investment portfolio, sold the majority of the assets in the portfolio, and purchased high-growth-oriented investments that resulted in substantial fees and commissions for Pam;
- The stated purpose of the reconstructed portfolio was to generate a conservative amount of income;
- Additionally, Pam and Marcia persuaded Decedent to establish one or more individual retirement accounts and to name Marcia as the sole primary beneficiary;
- Pam has no college education and has minimal experience in the industry;
- After Decedent's death, Marcia volunteered to arrange Decedent's funeral on behalf of the family; however, there was no funeral and no memorial service; rather, Pam had Decedent cremated and her remains buried; no family members were invited to participate in the interment.

Undue Influence

- Petitioner contends that Pam and Marcia exerted undue influence over Decedent in order to procure the First Amendment to the SURVIVOR'S TRUST, generate commissions on the sale of stocks, and establish IRAs for the sole benefit of Marcia;
- At all times relevant herein, both Pam and Marcia enjoyed confidential, fiduciary relationships with Decedent;
- Marcia was in constant contact with Decedent, consulting with an assisting Decedent with her personal and financial affairs, and Pam provided financial and estate planning advice to Decedent, ultimately taking over Decedent's investment portfolio and consulting on matters pertaining to the administration of the Trust;
- Through constant badgering and persistence, both Marcia and Pam eventually began to assert control over Decedent, her personal and financial affairs, and the assets of the Trust;
- At all times relevant herein, Decedent was aged and suffering from declining health; as a result of such conditions, including her injury in January 2013, Decedent was easily influenced and controlled by Marcia and Pam;
- Due to this control, Maria and Pam convinced and unduly influenced Decedent to change the SURVIVOR'S TRUST to disinherit Petitioner and to increase Marcia's beneficial share of the Trust;
- Marcia and Pam cajoled and convinced Decedent, an 86-year old woman, into traveling to Clovis, many miles away from her home in Laguna Hills, to execute the First Amendment to the SURVIVOR'S TRUST; apart from Marcia's residence there, Decedent had no ties or connections to Clovis;
- Pam and Marcia actively procured the purposed First Amendment to the SURVIVOR'S TRUST as part of a pattern of conduct aimed at gaining control of Decedent's major assets;
- By disinheriting Petitioner from the SURVIVOR'S TRUST, the First Amendment increased Marcia's distributive share of the SURVIVOR'S TRUST by 10%;

~Please see additional page~

- Also due to their control and undue influence, Marcia and Pam convinced Decedent to establish no fewer than 2 IRAs and to designate Marcia as the sole primary beneficiary of each account;
- Had Marcia and Pam not done so, the assets that funded the IRAs would have remained in the Trust and been distributed according to the Trust terms, including a 20% beneficial interest to Petitioner;
- In addition, Pam was able to take control of Decedent's investment portfolio as a result of her influence;
- By liquidating and then re-investing Decedent's portfolio, Pam generated significant income for herself through commissions and fees; Marcia actively assisted Pam with these efforts, all to the detriment of Decedent and the Trust estate;
- The disposition of the SURVIVOR'S TRUST as provided in the purported First Amendment to the SURVIVOR'S TRUST confers an undue benefit on Marcia;
- Decedent had always intended that part of her estate be distributed to Petitioner, her only son, after her death;
- Marcia and Pam "moved in" on Decedent, taking greater control over her affairs;
- By virtue of Marcia's and Pam's exertion of undue influence over Decedent, Respondents Marcia Bimat and Ronda Spires hold title to all assets of the SURVIVOR'S TRUST, as well as all income therefrom, as constructive trustee for the benefit of all persons entitled to distribution, including Petitioner as to a 20% share;
- Further, by virtue of Marcia's and Pam's exertion of undue influence over Decedent, Respondent Marcia holds title to all assets of the IRAs, as well as all income therefrom, for the benefit of all persons entitled to distribution of the SURVIVOR'S TRUST, including Petitioner.

Petitioner prays for an Order of this Court:

1. Finding the purported First Amendment to the SURVIVOR'S TRUST void due to the undue influence of Marcia J. Bimat and Pamela Ridell;
2. Finding the assets of the IRAs established by Decedent in 2013 to be assets of the Trust;
3. Declaring that Respondents Marcia J. Bimat and Ronda L. Spires hold the assets of the SURVIVOR'S TRUST in trust for the persons entitled to distribution, including Petitioner as to a 20% share;
4. Declaring that Respondent Marcia J. Bimat holds the assets of the IRAs in trust for the persons entitled to distribution, including Petitioner as to a 20% share;
5. Compelling Respondent Marcia J. Bimat to account for Decedent's assets, including changes in her investments and the investments of the Trust, for the period of 1/1/2013 to the present;
6. Permitting Petitioner to seek reimbursement from the Trust for attorney's fees incurred as a result of bringing the instant petition; and
7. Awarding Petitioner his costs incurred herein.

DOD: 5-9-11	MAGDALENA MANCILLA was appointed Administrator with Full IAEA without bond on 11-29-11.	NEEDS/PROBLEMS/COMMENTS: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Need amended Inventory and Appraisal pursuant to Probate Code §8900 et seq. Need petition for final distribution pursuant to Probate Code §12200. Note: Inventory and Appraisal filed 11-1-11 by the former Administrator indicated a total estate value of $140,000.00, which consisted of real property valued at $65,000.00 and a pending personal injury lawsuit valued at $75,000.00. However, the value of the pending lawsuit was provided by the Administrator rather than the Probate Referee. Note: The decedent left a spouse and five adult children, including the former Administrator, Ms. Mancilla. Ms. Mancilla's original petition listed all relatives at the same address (the decedent's former residence), and all notices were sent to this address. Note: A creditor has 90 days, not 30, to act on a rejected claim.
	The Administrator failed to appear for two status hearings on 1-24-13 and 2-22-13, and on 2-22-13, Ms. Mancilla was removed and the FRESNO COUNTY PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR was appointed as Successor Administrator with full IAEA. Letters issued on 3-6-13.
Cont. from 041213, 011714 032114, 060614	At hearing on 2-22-13, the Court set this hearing for status.
Aff.Sub.Wit.	Status Report filed 4-9-13 states the real property in Sanger is in foreclosure because there were no estate assets to pay the mortgage. There is the possibility of money coming into the estate from a civil lawsuit, Analilia Anguiano v. Suzette Ihara (Fresno Superior Court Case Number 11CECG01428). It is a physical injury/property damage lawsuit. On 3-19-13, a stipulation and order was filed in the civil matter to continue the trial to 4-21-2014, with mandatory settlement conference set for 3-26-14 and trial readiness hearing on 4-18-14. Therefore, the possibility of any funds coming into the estate soon is improbable. Public Administrator states the estate is not in a position to be settled and requests that further status hearing be set at least nine (9) months from the date of this hearing.
Verified	Status Report filed 1-17-14 states the real property remains in the foreclosure process. As previously reported, there remains the possibility of money coming into the estate from a civil lawsuit. Settlement conference has been set for 3-26-14 and trial readiness for 4-18-14. The possibility of any funds coming into the estate until after the trial on 4-21-14 is improbably Public Administrator requests the next status hearing be set at least nine months from today's hearing date.
Inventory	Status Report filed 3-12-14 states the Public Administrator previously requested continuance of seven months due to the pending civil litigation. The Court instead set status for two months later. At this time, the Public Administrator is advised that a settlement has been reached but there cannot be a signed agreement until they have a final Medi-Cal statement. They expect that within 30 days. Public Administrator requests that the next status hearing not be set before June 6, 2014.
PTC	Status Report filed 7-29-14 states it was discovered that a creditor's claim needed to be partially rejected. Because the creditor will have 30 days to appeal the rejection, additional time is needed. Petitioner requests the next hearing be set on or after 9-19-14.

(1) Petition for Final Distribution on Waiver of Accounting and (2) for Allowance of Statutory

DOD: 12/24/2004		PAMELA GAY LASSLEY , Executor, is petitioner.	NEEDS/PROBLEMS/COMMENTS: 1. Petitioner was formerly represented by Attorney Dorsey Dwelle. Attorney Dwelle is now deceased. His estate would be entitled to a portion of the statutory attorney fees. – Declaration of Petitioner states Mr. Dwelle was a family member and was waiving his fees. 2. Will distributes the estate equally to the decedent's four children with the share of the estate going to Richard Sharrah being placed into trust for his benefit. The proposed distribution does not distribute the remaining property equally to each beneficiary. Three of the children are to receive 38,881.79 each and the trust for the benefit of Richard is to receive $33,381.79. Each beneficiary, including the trust for the benefit of Richard, should be receiving $37,506.79. – Declaration of Petitioner states Richard Smith received an additional $5,000.00 from an account that was not included in the probate proceedings. Note: Accounts outside of probate have no bearing on this proceeding and therefore distribution should be equal as designated in the decedent's will. 3. Petition and proposed order do not include the terms of the trust in its entirety. – Declaration includes a portion of the terms of the trust but fails to include the section regarding the Trustee of the Trust. 4. Order does not comply with Local Rule 7.6.1

Richard G. Cenci states the petition should be denied for the following reasons:

- 1. Petitioner is not a beneficiary to whom income or principal is required or authorized to be currently distributed, and Respondent is not required to account to her. Probate Code §16062.
- 2. Petitioner did not bring her petition pursuant to §17200(b)(7). Esslinger v. Cummins, supra, at page 526.
- 3. Because Petitioner owes the family trust more than she would reasonably be expected to receive on distribution from it, Petitioner has no relevant interest in the family trust.
- 4. The probate court has discretion to grant or deny a petition for an order compelling a trustee to account. Because Petitioner committed elder financial abuse and breached her fiduciary duty to her mother that resulted in a significant loss to her, Petitioner has no right to an accounting of the family trust, and because of her actions has no interest in the family trust to protect.

See Opposition for details.
