Petitioners state Ginna has been absent from the premises for over 60 days and recently died; therefore, her life estate has terminated.  The trust provides that the upper level of the residence shall be held in trust for use by family members including Petitioners, Ruth, Ginna, and Kurt Arnold, subject to the discretion of the trustee, who is responsible for scheduling. Petitioners state (Continued): Since Ruth became trustee, she has ousted all other family members from the residence and refuses to allow anyone except herself and her friends to use the decedent's residence, contrary to the terms of the trust, and is also using the balance of the trust assets to pay for the maintenance of the residence. Ruth has also failed and refused to provide the beneficiaries of the trust with any accountings or notice as required by Probate Code §16061.7.

Petitioners request the Court find that Ruth should be suspended or removed as successor trustee for the following reasons:

- a. Breach of trust §15642(b)(1)
- b. Unfit to administer trust §15642(b)(2)
- c. Other good cause §15642(b)(9)

The trust property and/or interests of the petitioners may suffer loss or injury pending a decision on a petition for removal of Ruth as trustee; therefore, Petitioners seek an order requiring her to surrender trust property to a receiver or temporary trustee and suspend powers pursuant to §15642(e).

Pursuant to §15642(c), Ruth should bear all costs of this proceeding, including Petitioners' reasonable attorney fees if the court finds that her designation as trustee was not consistent with the intent of the settlor or was the product of fraud, menace, duress, or undue influence.

Petitioners request the Court find that a constructive trust exists over any and all assets of the trust in Ruth's possession, order Ruth to turn over all assets to a trustee appointed by the court, order Ruth to account for any and all assets ever in her possession within 30 days.

Petitioners seek their attorney's fees from Ruth pursuant to Probate Code §17211(b).

Petition is missing Pages 5 through 8. Page 9 continues the prayer that was apparently started on a prior missing page. Rather than summarize the incomplete prayer, Examiner's review will end here until the missing information is provided. As of 7/31/15, nothing further has been filed by Petitioner.

Note: The trust identifies the subject property as 13130 Wells Fargo Drive in Groveland, CA.

Ruth Aileen Bise Rios filed Opposition on 5/26/15, along with a declaration in support of her opposition from Yvonne Marie Scott, a granddaughter of the decedent. Objector states the court should deny the petition and/or set the matter for trial because Objector has not committed a breach of the trust or breached her fiduciary duties, is experienced and qualified to continue to act as trustee (and as decedent's trusted choice), has rendered substantial and valuable services to the beneficiaries in maintaining the trust real property and other asset (Chevron stock), has not "ousted" or "refused" petitioners from using the real property, has not used "the balance" of trust assets for maintenance of the family residence, and has not failed and refused to provide the beneficiaries with an accounting. The trust provides for scheduling of use at the discretion of the trustee and states the discretion of the trustee is incontestable. When the Chevron stock dividends were insufficient for maintaining the residence, Ruth used her personal funds to do so. Sometimes she would reimburse herself. Often, she would forego reimbursement. Ruth has caused to be prepared and filed the fiduciary income tax returns for the trust. Ruth has personally take her half-brother, Petitioner Jeremy Leland Hernandez, to the family residence on several occasions, and Ruth's sister, Petitioner Rachelle Rae Robles Rico, has never asked to use the residence. Ruth has not used the balance of the trust assets – only the dividends have and are being used, together with Ruth's personal funds, when necessary. A full and complete accounting is attached as Exhibit B. See Opposition for further details, which appear to respond to sections of the petition missing from the original filing.

Note: Examiner has not reviewed the accounting at Exhibit B, as it has not been filed with the court for review; it is only provided as a response to the petition.

SEE ADDITIONAL PAGES

Declaration of James J. Mele in opposition to Petition filed 7/21/15 states even though his client was not properly served, his client voluntarily answered and provided Petitioners through their attorney and filed with the court 1) a comprehensive opposition to the petition; 2) a declaration under penalty of perjury; 3) the Declaration under penalty of perjury of the remaining beneficiary under the trust, together with 4) a full and complete accounting, which had never before been requested by Petitioners, whose addresses were not then available to his client. (In fact, their addresses were not even set forth in the original petition.) Additionally, his client agreed to produce documentation to support the accounting. In her filed opposition and declaration, his client denies ever having denied use of the trust property to petitioners and identifies occasions on which Petitioners used the trust property.

Because his client has acted at all times within her fiduciary authority under the trust and has voluntarily responded to concerns set forth in the petition, Attorney Mele again requested on 7/18/15 that Petitioners dismiss their "contest" in order to avoid the potential loss of further or future benefits.

5. Notice of Hearing filed 5/4/15 appears to indicate deficient service on some persons, including service by email. See Probate Code §1215. Note: Per #4 above, it is also unclear of all parties entitled to notice are included.
6. Probate Code §17200(b) provides that proceedings under this section may be filed if the requested information is not provided within 60 days after reasonable written request. Petitioners do not indicate whether written request was made for the information. It appears this petition filed in the Probate Court may be premature, given this section, and #3 above.
7. Petitioners request appointment of a successor trustee, but do not state a name and do not provide information regarding value of the trust for bond purposes.

			File 18 – MacFaddin

This provision conclusively establishes Marcia Macfaddin's intent that the assets listed on Exhibit B were intended to be part of the Trust.

All of the assets listed on Exhibit B are assets that may be legally held in trust and are assets of the Marcia Macfaddin 2010 Trust even though title to those assets were not formally changed prior the death of Marcia Macfaddin.

Marcia Macfaddin executed a will dated 8/12/2010 leaving any property subject to that will to the trustee of the Marcia Macfaddin 2010 Trust.

Wherefore Petitioner prays for an order of the Court that:

1. The Marcia Macfaddin 2010 Trust dated 8/12/10 as restated on 9/16/10 is valid;
2. The assets set forth in Exhibit B are assets subject to the management and control of Gary S. Dunn, CPA, as trustee of the Marcia Macfaddin 2010 trust dated 8/12/2010, as restated on 9/16/10 and all third parties shall allow him to take possession and control of those assets in his capacity as Trustee.
