Petitioner provides a list of those interest in the trust and estate of Nancy Van Pelt and Harry Van Pelt whose interests may be affected by this petition, which list includes various charitable entities.

Petitioner alleges that the charitable entities designated in the trust have no interest in any of the property of the trust because Harry Van Pelt revoked the trust prior to his death. They are named in the petition because the trust assets had not been distributed out of the trust at the time of his death.

Petitioner asks the Court for to enter the following orders:

- 1. The TD Ameritrade Accounts xxx467, xxx474, and xxx509 are part of the trust;
- 2. Rodney Van Pelt as successor trustee of the trust is directed to distribute the three TD Ameritrade accounts to Park Avenue Securities account xxx543;
- 3. The Park Avenue Securities Account shall be distributed to the beneficiaries designated by Harry Van Pelt in the beneficiary designations for the Park Avenue Securities Account xxx543; and
- 4. Such further orders as the court deems proper.

Note: The trust provides at Article II that while both co-trustors are living, either co-trustor may revoke the trust in whole or in part, and upon the death of either co-trustor, this right of revocation may be exercised by the co-trustor acting alone.

| Mary E. McAlpineDOD: 4-22-14           | JUDITH A. SWENSON and ESTELLE L. HAYES,successor trustees, are petitioners.   | NEEDS/PROBLEMS/COMMENTS: |
|  | Petitioners state Mary E. McAlpine (DOD 4-22-14) created the Mary E. McAlpine living Trust dated 8-17-09, which names Petitioners as successor trustees.   |                                 |
|  | The trust includes all of the assets described in Schedule A, and at Section 1.03 also states: "I also transfer all my right, title, and interest in and to all of my property that may legally be held in trust and may, by this assignment, be transferred to my trust." Accordingly, the Trustor expressly stated her intent to transfer all asset to the trust. Additionally, the decedent executed an Assignment of Perosnal property assigning all right, title, and interest in all tangible personal property to herself as trustee of the trust, demonstrating her intent to hold all property in the trust. |                                 |
|  | Petitioners assert that pursuant to Estate of Heggstad and § 15200(a), the assets listed in Exhibit B to this petition should be deemed assets of the trust. Petitioner describes how each account listed relates to the accounts specified in Schedule A of the trust.   |                                 |
|  | In addition, the decedent's will distributes the residue to the trust. Petitioners submit that the decedent's intent to transfer all assets to the trust was clearly established and that probate of the estate would result in the exact same distribution.   |                                 |
|  | Petitioners pray for an order of this court that: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. The Mary E. McAlpine Living Trust dated 8-17-09 is in existence;</li> <li>2. The assets set forth on Exhibit "B" attached to the petition are assets subject to the management and control of petitioners as successor trustees; and</li> <li>3. | DOD: 4-4-12  | LOUIS WAYNE WIEBE, Son, was appointed Executor with Full IAEA without bond and Letters issued on 6-25-12. On 6-25-13, the Court set this status hearing for the filing of the first account or petition for final distribution. Status report filed 6-16-14 states the estate has been liquidated and is in a position to close. However, to creditors of the estate have issued a form 1099-C, cancellation of debt for 2013, even though the estate has not closed. The attorney contacted the claimants to determine if the 1099-C is intended as a waiver of their claims against the estate and both confirmed. However, the issuance of the 1099-C forms causes implications that were not anticipated, and the cancellation of debt results in taxable income of $15,562.97 for the estate and a return will need to be filed for calendar year 2013. Therefore, additional time is needed. Attorney Simonian will attend the status hearing. | NEEDS/PROBLEMS/COMMENTS:  |

4. Contestant alleges that the "will" was not executed by the decedent and/or attested in the manner and in the form required by law for the due execution of a will.
5. Contestant alleges that on the date of the alleged execution of the "will", decedent lacked the requisite testamentary intent.
6. Contestant alleges that Respondent took unfair advantage of the Decedent; that Respondent arranged for the "witnessing" of the purported will; that the will was not the free and voluntary act of decedent; that the "will" was the product of Respondent's undue influence, duress and/or coercion that it unduly profited the Respondent.
7. Contestant alleges that the underlying agreement is invalid and unenforceable as it is against public policy agreement by its terms and that the agreement is "usurious" and that the express purpose of the loan is contrary to public policy in that it is a gambling related agreement or activity of gambling; and that such agreements are either expressly prohibited by law or are unenforceable as "otherwise contrary to good morals" which is in violation of the public policy of this state.
8. Contestant alleges that if the agreement and/or any provision of the agreement is in furtherance of a gambling related agreement or activity it is expressly and impliedly against public policy and that as such it is unenforceable; that the agreement by its terms is unconscionable and if enforced the Respondent would be unjustly enriched; that the Respondent would reap an undue profit; and that the disposition proposed by the instrument is unnatural.
9. Contestant alleges that the underlying debt was paid by the decedent, further that the note should have been returned to the decedent marked "paid in full"; and that pursuant to law all terms of the note were discharged upon the payment of debt; or in the alternative that the note and all obligations under the agreement were extinguished upon the payment of the underlying obligation.

| File 1B – Noroyan    |

3. Contestant alleges that the document is not and never was decedent's will and was made at the time of its alleged execution as a result of undue influence, fraud and duress to which decedent was subjected to by Respondent in that:
  - a. At the time the purported will was procured, Respondent knew the decedent had recently won one million dollars at an Indian casino. He also knew decedent was in poor health, had a gambling addiction and as a result he placed his trust and confidence in Respondent who took unfair advantage of decedent's state of mind.
  - b. During the same time period, by reason of the relationship of decedent with Respondent, Respondent was able to exert control and influence over the mind and actions of Decedent to such a point that Decedent was no longer capable of exercising his own conviction or desire with regard to his actions or thoughts, but rather, because of the pressure brought on him by Respondent, both by coercion and entreaty, decedent's convictions or desires became the convictions or desires imposed on him by Respondent.
  - c. During this time, while decedent was under duress and Respondent's undue influence, Respondent wrote the contents or and arranged for witnesses to the document submitted for probate to this court by Respondent. At the time the document was allegedly executed, decedent was wholly under the influence of Respondent and the document does not represent the free and voluntary act of decedent.

4. Contestant alleges that the document offered for probate cannot be construed as a conditional will in that:
  - a. The top part of the writing offered for probate is an apparent note for repayment of a gambling debt which on its face is usurious under the law and unenforceable.
  - b. The decedent paid back the debt to Respondent thereby extinguishing the terms of the note and therefore there is no relationship between the top part of the writing and the bottom part of the writing, which was written by the Respondent at a different time unbeknownst to the decedent in order to defraud the decedent and unjustly acquire his gambling winnings.

Contestant requests that the purported will be denied probate, for costs of suit and all other proper relief.

Consolidated Answer of Ian W. Mitchinson to Written Oppositions of Probate of Purported Will filed 03/07/14 states:

1. Respondent denies all of the allegations in both Oppositions other than to admit that the decedent died on 03/28/13 as a resident of Fresno County and that he was never married and had no children.
2. Affirmative defenses are asserted as follows:
  1. Failure to state grounds – the contest and grounds of opposition to probate of the purported will fails to state facts sufficient to grounds of opposition to probate of the will.
  2. Superseding cause – Respondent alleges that the Contestants are barred from any recovery by reason of acts or omissions of Contestants and/or others which acts or omissions constitute an intervening or superseding cause of their disinheritance and lack the standing to inherit, if any there be.
  3. Excuse – Contestants' rights to inherit and any acts or omissions on Contestants' part, if any, are excused by the acts, errors, or omissions and nonperformance of Contestants.
  4. Lack of Relationship – Respondent alleges that there was no relationship whatsoever between decedent and Contestant Noroyan giving rise to standing as an intestate heir.
  5. Lack of Standing – Contestant Noroyan lacks standing to assert any ground of contest to the Petition for Probate.
  6. Vague, Ambiguous, Uncertain, and Lack of Specificity – Contestants' Oppositions and contest of the Petition for Probate and their purported grounds of contest and each of them, are vague, ambiguous, uncertain, and fail to allege adequate specificity required by California law, the California Probate Code and California rules of Civil Procedure.
  7. Other defenses – Respondent presently has insufficient knowledge or information on which to form a belief as to whether additional affirmative defenses may exist. Accordingly, Respondent reserves the right to assert additional affirmative defenses in the event discovery indicates they would be appropriate.

Respondent requests judgment as follows:

1. That the contest and grounds of opposition to the purported will be dismissed with prejudice and Contestants English and Noroyan take nothing by their actions;
2. That decedent's estate be admitted to probate and administered according to the will dated 11/02/12; and
3. That Respondent be awarded costs of suit.
