File 9 - Torres

Objections of Marisol Garibay, mother, filed on 7/19/12 states she has had the minor in her physical custody since birth. The father of her daughter is currently incarcerated at Corcoran State Prison for violation of a gang enhancement, attempted murder, and crimes against another person. He is currently serving a 10 year term. Objector states she was 6 months pregnant when the father became incarcerated. During this time Objector states she lived with her mother and often stayed with Ms. Torres [Petitioner]. When the minor was born she continued to go back and forth between her mother's home and Ms. Torres' home, but her primary home was with her mother. In June 2010 she occupied her own apartment and has been there for the past 2 ½ years. Objector states she has allowed her daughter to visit her grandparents [petitioners] and given permission for her to visit her incarcerated father. Visiting with the father has always been an issue. Objector does not feel that her daughter should visit a prison setting every weekend. The father is placed in "Administrative Segregation" due to his manipulation and the influence he has on the general population of inmates. The father is very influential and is a validated gang member. Objector feels his heavy involvement in the gang will lead to retaliation against his immediate family putting the minor in danger. Objector is also concerned because the grandfather, Javier Torres abuses alcohol and cocaine. The address Petitioners gave is a known place where rooster fights and gambling are performed and for illegal drug activity. Objector states she has personally witnessed numerous violent altercations at this home due to alcohol abuse. The grandmother [petitioner] has been very helpful however she smokes and exposes the minor to second hand smoke. She also has a problem with gambling and Objector fears for the safety of the minor should she decide to go to the casino and leave the minor with the drunk grandfather. Objector states the minor is her number one priority and the allegations of her residing with her ex-boyfriend are untrue. Objector states she has never taken her daughter around Ricardo (ex-boyfriend) due to the nature of his case. Objector states she is very protective of her daughter. She has never given up her rights other than for medical consent for insurance, because it was in the best interest of the minor in case of an emergency during visitations. Objector believes that the minor should be in her care. Objector states she is a good person and she has a clear criminal record, she does not abuse drugs and she is in perfect health and able to care for her child.

Court Investigator Jennifer Daniel's Report filed on 9/4/12.

DUCHAN – Declaration of Due Diligence filed 07/13/12 (Deceased) Petitioner states the children have always lived in her home, and the mother recently left for six days with no contact at all to stay at a drug house. Petitioner states the mother is now out of her house and Petitioner has stopped her from taking the children to drug houses. The mother signed over her rights to the children to Petitioner knowing it is in the children's best interest. Petitioner states the father, who is now married, has been a Bulldog gang member for many years, and has had very little contact with the children for the last 7 years, having had only 4 visits with them since December 2011. He does not support them or take any interest in them. Petitioner states she has been the one providing care for the children during their lives and she feels she is the best person to take proper care of them. Objection to Guardianship filed 07/18/12 by William Reyes, father states: He feels the grandmother will take his children out of town and he will never see them if guardianship is granted.
