Both parents resided with Petitioners until September 2009, when the father was deployed to Iraq. In October 2009, the mother left Noah with Petitioners and executed a medical authorization. The father was discharged in August 2010, but died in June 2011 as a result of an injury while on deployment. Noah continued to reside with Petitioners following the father's death and was enrolled in preschool in December 2011. On 7-29-12, the mother picked Noah up for a visit and later told Petitioners that she did not intend to return him. On 7-31-12, Petitioners inquired at the preschool to ensure that the mother was taking him, but she was not. Petitioners went to the mother's residence to inquire about Noah, but the mother threatened to call the cops. Petitioners state that for Noah's entire life, the mother would come and go and was never a permanent and stable person for Noah to rely on. She visited once a week as convenient for her, all facilitated by Petitioners. She has only attended one of Noah's baseball games and has made no effort to be a part of the extracurricular activities that he enjoys. Points and Authorities state Petitioners are Noah's de facto parents pursuant to Family Code §3041 and refer to Probate Code §§ 2250 and 15100 regarding good cause. Objection to Petition for General Guardianship filed 09/18/12 by April Carpenter, mother states that she never left Noah in their care. She states that she allowed liberal visitation between Noah and his Father, who resided in Petitioners home, and left Noah with his father while she was in Army National Guard training. After Noah's father's death, she allowed Petitioners to continue visitation with Noah, but realized that he needed more stability and clarity to where his primary residence was and tried to arrange an appropriate visitation schedule with Petitioners, however, they were not in agreement with her suggestions and their counter visitation suggestion resulted in her only seeing Noah a couple times a week. Ms. Carpenter states that she became concerned with Petitioner's intentions and stopped visitation with them until it was court ordered on 08/30/12. Continued on Page 2	NEEDS/PROBLEMS/COMMENTS: CONTINUED FROM 10/02/12 Minute Order from 10/02/12 States: Parties agree to participate in mediation with Donald Fischer on 10/03/12 at 2:00 pm. Court Investigator Jennifer Young filed a report on 09/26/12.

Probate Mediation Agreement states that the parties agree to return to mediation after the 10/23/12 hearing to work out a visitation schedule.

Note: With regard to any visitation agreement reached during mediation, the Probate Court will not have jurisdiction to make court orders regarding visitation unless a guardianship is granted. If a guardianship is not granted and the parties wish to pursue Court ordered visitation, they may do so in the Family Law court.

		File 14A – Owens & Maham

Attached to the mother's objection is a handwritten note from a friend named Monica Russell which states that she witnessed the mother, Shanice Owens, crying and walking with her luggage and children. She stated that her mother (petitioner) had just kicked her and her children out of the house. It further states that the mother handles her responsibility very well and that it is hard to believe the false allegations made against her.

Mother filed an Ex Parte Petition for Return of Children on 07/27/2012 and it was denied on that same day.

Mother filed an Ex Parte Petition for Reconsideration of the Temporary Guardianship on 07/27/2012 and it was denied on 07/30/2012.

Declaration of Aaron Thompson (father of Erianna) filed 08/10/2012 states that he is not in prison, his current record is mostly clean except for one misdemeanor over two years ago. He states he has been active in the child's life since birth. He lives in Arkansas but has maintained visits when the mother would permit him. He visited the child in 2009 and the child was recently with him for Christmas break. He states that both he and his wife are fully capable of taking care of the child. He also states that he has a great relationship with the child as well as with the maternal grandmother and petitioner, Lola Starnes.

Court Investigator Samantha D. Henson's report filed 09/04/2012

5. UCCJEA filed 07/30/2012 is still incomplete as to the dates of the children's residence for the past five years as well as who the children have been residing with.
