		Reviewed by: LEG Reviewed on: 10/19/12 Updates: Recommendation: File 1 - Mounts

Petitioner states, continued:

- Decedent was survived by two grandchildren, both minors, and Decedent's Will passes her entire estate to her two grandchildren, TAYLOR LORYN MOUNTS (currently age 16) and DYLAN JEFFREY MOUNTS (currently age 14) in equal shares;
- The estate is solvent and is now in a condition to be closed.

Petitioner requests authority to deliver the real property of the estate to himself for the benefit of his children pursuant to the California Uniform Transfer to Minors Act (CUTMA), based upon the following:

- The Decedent owned a condominium at the time of her death with a value of $95,000.00, and the Petitioner does not believe the value has increased significantly, if at all, since the date of Decedent's death (DOD 1/15/2011);
- The balance on the mortgage is about $80,000.00, and if Petitioner was able to find a buyer, the net to the estate would be negligible after costs of sale;
- Because the equity in the property is small and the rents generated just cover expenses, Petitioner does not believe the expense to set up and maintain guardianships of the estate of the minors would be cost effective;
- Accordingly, Petitioner requests an order pursuant to Probate Code § 3906, which authorizes the Court to allow for a transfer to an adult on behalf of a minor in the absence of authorization by a will or trust, if [all of the following are met]:
 1. the personal representative believes the transfer to be in the best interest of the minor;
 2. the transfer is not [prohibited by or] inconsistent with the will or trust; and
 3. the transfer is authorized by the Court if it exceeds $10,000.00. [Note: Value to each minor will be ~$47,500.00];
- Petitioner believes that delivery of the property to [himself to] hold for the benefit of the minors will be in their best interest;
- Petitioner is hopeful that real estate values will increase over time so that the property will have equity;
- Petitioner proposes that he continue to service the mortgage and maintain the property as a rental, and that he continue to collect the rents and otherwise maintain the property;
- Upon each child attaining the age of 18, Petitioner proposes he be allowed to file an ex parte request for an order to turn over ½ of the rental account to the former minor and to distribute ½ of the real property to the former minor.

Petitioner prays for an order:

1. Bringing administration of this estate to a close;
2. Settling, allowing and approving the First and Final Account of Petitioner as Executor;
3. Ratifying, confirming and approving all acts and transactions of Petitioner as Executor;
4. Distributing the real property of the estate to Philip Andrew Mounts under the California Uniform Transfer to Minors Act as custodian for the benefit of Taylor Loryn Mounts and Dylan Jeffrey Mounts, in equal undivided interests as prayed for in the petition;
5. Allowing Petitioner to continue to collect the rents and otherwise maintain the property;
6. Requiring that upon each child attaining age 18, the Petitioner file an ex parte request for an order to turn over ½ of the rental account to the former minor and to distribute ½ of the real property to the former minor;
7. Allowing the statutory fees and reimbursement of costs advanced; and
8. Ordering a lien on the property distributed to the beneficiaries for any unpaid attorney fees.

Note: Based upon the Status Statement [to be filed 10/19/2012] by the Executor, the additional NEEDS/PROBLEMS/COMMENTS from the previous hearing are not included in these notes.

Age: 3	NO TEMPORARY IN PLACE; TEMPORARY DENIED ON 08/30/12	NEEDS/PROBLEMS/COMMENTS:
	DALE and CARMEN MARTINEZ , Paternal Grandparents, are Petitioners.	CONTINUED FROM 10/02/12
	Father: MATTHEW MARTINEZ - Deceased	Minute Order from 10/02/12
Cont. from 100212	Mother: APRIL CARPENTER	States: Parties agree to participate in mediation with Donald Fischer on 10/03/12 at 2:00 pm. Matter continued to 10/23/12.
Aff.Sub.Wit.	Maternal Grandfather: Unknown Maternal Grandmother: Janet Carpenter	As of 10/17/12, the following remains outstanding:
✓ Verified	Petitioners state Noah resided with them from birth until 7-29-12. Both parents resided with Petitioners until September 2009, when the father was deployed to Iraq. In October 2009, the mother left Noah with Petitioners and executed a medical authorization. The father was discharged in August 2010, but died in June 2011 as a result of an injury while on deployment. Noah continued to reside with Petitioners following the father's death and was enrolled in preschool in December 2011.	1. Need proof of personal service at least 15 days before the hearing of Notice of Hearing with a copy of the Petition or Consent & Waiver of Notice or Declaration of Due Diligence for: - April Carpenter (mother)
Inventory	On 7-29-12, the mother picked Noah up for a visit and later told Petitioners that she did not intend to return him. On 7-31-12, Petitioners inquired at the preschool to ensure that the mother was taking him, but she was not. Petitioners went to the mother's residence to inquire about Noah, but the mother threatened to call the cops.	2. Need proof of service by mail at least 15 days before the hearing of Notice of Hearing with a copy of the Petition or Consent & Waiver of Notice or Declaration of Due Diligence for: - Janet Carpenter (maternal grandmother)
PTC	Petitioners state that for Noah's entire life, the mother would come and go and was never a permanent and stable person for Noah to rely on. She visited once a week as convenient for her, all facilitated by Petitioners. She has only attended one of Noah's baseball games and has made no effort to be a part of the extracurricular activities that he enjoys.
Not.Cred.	Points and Authorities state Petitioners are Noah's de facto parents pursuant to Family Code §3041 and refer to Probate Code §§ 2250 and 15100 regarding good cause.
✓ Notice of Hrg	Objection to Petition for General Guardianship filed 09/18/12 by April Carpenter, mother states that she never left Noah in their care. She states that she allowed liberal visitation between Noah and his Father, who resided in Petitioners home, and left Noah with his father while she was in Army National Guard training. After Noah's father's death, she allowed Petitioners to continue visitation with Noah, but realized that he needed more stability and clarity to where his primary residence was and tried to arrange an appropriate visitation schedule with Petitioners, however, they were not in agreement with her suggestions and their counter visitation suggestion resulted in her only seeing Noah a couple times a week. Ms. Carpenter states that she became concerned with Petitioner's intentions and stopped visitation with them until it was court ordered on 08/30/12.

Court Investigator Jennifer Young filed a report on 09/26/12.

Probate Mediation Agreement states that the parties agree to return to mediation after the 10/23/12 hearing to work out a visitation schedule.

Note: With regard to any visitation agreement reached during mediation, the Probate Court will not have jurisdiction to make court orders regarding visitation unless a guardianship is granted. If a guardianship is not granted and the parties wish to pursue Court ordered visitation, they may do so in the Family Law court.

File 14A – Owens & Maham

Attached to the mother's objection is a handwritten note from a friend named Monica Russell which states that she witnessed the mother, Shanice Owens, crying and walking with her luggage and children. She stated that her mother (petitioner) had just kicked her and her children out of the house. It further states that the mother handles her responsibility very well and that it is hard to believe the false allegations made against her.

Mother filed an Ex Parte Petition for Return of Children on 07/27/2012 and it was denied on that same day.

Mother filed an Ex Parte Petition for Reconsideration of the Temporary Guardianship on 07/27/2012 and it was denied on 07/30/2012.

Declaration of Aaron Thompson (father of Erianna) filed 08/10/2012 states that he is not in prison, his current record is mostly clean except for one misdemeanor over two years ago. He states he has been active in the child's life since birth. He lives in Arkansas but has maintained visits when the mother would permit him. He visited the child in 2009 and the child was recently with him for Christmas break. He states that both he and his wife are fully capable of taking care of the child. He also states that he has a great relationship with the child as well as with the maternal grandmother and petitioner, Lola Starnes.

Court Investigator Samantha D. Henson's report filed 09/04/2012

5. UCCJEA filed 07/30/2012 is still incomplete as to the dates of the children's residence for the past five years as well as who the children have been residing with.
