	In all three guardianship estates, the order states bond is not required, but the guardian is not authorized to take possession of money or any other property without a specific court order.
<input type="checkbox"/> Aff.Sub.Wit.	The original petition anticipated that the minors would receive distribution from the Estate of Gordon Mommer 05CEPR01325 and the proceeds would be placed into a blocked account.

Also, the father's probate estate also was not completed by the Public Administrator.

However, as noted above, this was not addressed in the actual probate estate.

Status Report of Counsel for Rhonda L. Mommer Slater filed 10-22-12 states:

During the pendency of the bifurcated portion of the dissolution action of the minors' parents (02CEFL04803), their father died. A probate estate was initiated by the Public Administrator (05CEPR01325) and the Public Administrator was substituted in place of Mr. Mommer to resolve the property matters in the Dissolution action. It was anticipated that Lars' interest in the father's estate would include an undivided one-third interest in any property confirmed to his father in the dissolution. In anticipation of the minor receiving the interest in the property, a guardianship of the estate was established.

In March 2008, the parties to the dissolution reached a full property settlement and the Court entered a judgment on the reserved property issues on 6-8-08 containing the terms of the settlement (attached).

Pursuant to the terms of the Judgment, Rhonda L. Mommer's interest was 73.339% and the decedent's interest was 26.661% was to be divided between the three children at 8.887% each.

In accordance with the terms of the judgment, the residence was transferred directly to Rhonda Mommer and the three minor children directly, rather than to the probate estate for distribution.

Lars Mommer attained majority in 2008 and as a consequence, currently owns his undivided 8.887% interest in the residence in his individual name.

Attorney Wright is informed and believed that a Petition to Terminate the Guardianship Estate will be filed on behalf of Rhonda L. Mommer in order to conclude administration of the guardianship estate.

		CHRISTOPHER BRIAN LITTLE is the Former Executor.
