

Petitioner requests the Court find:

1. All services for which compensation is sought were rendered in good faith and in the best interest of the conservatee;
2. Make an order approving this petition and directing the conservator of the estate to pay from the conservatorship estate the sum of $11,890.00 as compensation for services and costs incurred to the Conservator of the Estate during the period of October 25, 2011 and July 3, 2012.

Objections to Request for Attorney Fees by the Prior Attorney filed by Conservator, Maria Mairena, on 10/16/12. Objector alleges the request for fees by her former attorney in this matter is patently unreasonable. Pursuant to Probate Code §2642 an attorney is entitled to the "reasonable fees" associated with and involved with the tasks he/she has performed to and for the benefit of the estate and/or which accrues to the benefit of the conservatee.

In her petition the attorney is requesting fees for services performed in rendering the third account. The attention required for the account in the opinion of the objector should not have been difficult. Plainly but with a few exceptions, the tasks were routine and ministerial in nature. The attorney's expertise would have been required for instructions of staff then the review of work; the majority of the tasks should have been assigned to a competent legal secretary or paralegal, the accounting did not require the attention applied by counsel to a matter which is routine in nature.

The Objector anticipated that the attorney fees would likely be expensive, but upon reading the request of attorney's fees in the sum of $11,060.00 was stunned. The previous attorney in this matter was paid $1,900.00 for the first account and he requested and received $3,800.00 for the second account. He also received another $1,900.00 for work he did in the third accounting period. While the first account may not be representative, there was another attorney involved, the fees for the second account appear to be representative and equivalent to the work required in this matter in the third account. Objector believes that a significant reduction in fees requested is in order in this matter.

The Objector is informed and believes that the code grants the Court authority to award the "reasonable attorney fees." The Objector is of the opinion that the amount of attorney fees is unreasonable given the circumstances.

Wherefore, the Objector requests:

1. The relief requested by the Objector be granted;
2. The court determine a reasonable amount for the attorney fees and enter and order in that amount.

Ex Parte Petition for Grandparents Visitations (fam. Code 3104) and Petition to Join as Party to Guardianship Hearings of Zachary Filga

Age: 2	TEMPORARY GUARDIANSHIP EXPIRES 1-22-13	NEEDS/PROBLEMS/COMMENTS:
	PATRICIA KILPATRICK , Maternal Grandmother, is Petitioner.	Note: Per Minute Order 7-19-12, Temporary Guardianship to remain in place until 1-22-13 pursuant to a settlement agreement as stated on the record.
	ELAINE THOMAS , Paternal Grandmother, is Temporary Guardian.	Per Order After Hearing filed 7-31-12, Mother (Rachel Stauffer) to have unsupervised visitation every Saturday for three months, and overnight visits thereafter. The order also contains provisions for various holidays and states the father's visitation must be supervised. The trial date was vacated, and a review hearing was scheduled for 1-22-13.
<input type="checkbox"/> Aff.Sub.Wit.	Petitioner's Ex Parte Petition states she has been active in Zachary's life since he was born; however, she has been denied visits since the 7-19-12 settlement agreement between the temporary guardian and the mother. Petitioner was present at that hearing, but no one discussed her visitation rights. Petitioner previously had unsupervised overnight visits, and both she and Zachary enjoyed them. He did not cry when being left with her. The visits were separate from Rachel's visits because Rachel wants to see Zachary by herself. Petitioner states Elaine previously told her that all she had to do was call to see Zachary, but when she requested to see him on 8-19-12, she did not respond. She sent follow up emails (attached), and received a message that she couldn't see him because someone else was visiting that day. Instead, she offered a day that she knew Petitioner could not visit because she was returning to San Jose. Petitioner states she is now retired and is available through the week to see Zachary. To prevent future problems with her right to visit, Petitioner proposes a schedule including visits on Zachary's birthday, and December, and monthly 3-day visits, with makeup visits if cancellation occurs. See Petition for details. Exchanges to take place at Janet Appleton's residence or mutually agreed place. Temporary Guardian to provide medical care information in case of emergency. The Court set the Petition for hearing. Petitioner to provide appropriate notice to interested parties. SEE ADDITIONAL PAGES	Note: Petitioner (Maternal Grandmother) resides in San Jose, CA.
<input type="checkbox"/> Verified			1. Petitioner filed "Proof of Personal Service" showing service on the attorneys for Temporary Guardian and Mother, but the parties were not served directly with a Notice of Hearing.

Janet Appleton filed a supporting declaration indicating that her home is open for visits.

Petitioner filed a supplemental declaration on 10-19-12 indicating that since her petition, she has been refused visits unless they are with the mother. Zepure Attashian, attorney for the temporary guardian, told her the reason her visits are being refused is because Petitioner intimidated the temporary guardian by saying she was having her followed. This accusation is not true.

Petitioner states the temporary guardian knows that Rachel (Mother) will not allow Petitioner to see Zachary during her visits because she is upset that Petitioner supported the petition for guardianship, and feels that if Petitioner is there, Zachary will not bond with her. The temporary guardian's refusal to let Petitioner see Zachary appears to stem from the fact that she was told by Janet Appleton that Petitioner was retiring and planned to move to Fresno to see her daughter and grandson more frequently. Ms. Appleton thought the temporary guardian would be pleased to hear that, but instead was distressed.

Petitioner states she has never been a threat to Zachary or to Elaine Thomas (temporary guardian).

Petitioner proposes a revised visitation schedule. See Declaration.
