NEEDS/PROBLEMS/COMMENTS:

1. Due to the extensive history of this file, for review purposes, the Court may require a brief summary in petitions going forward regarding the income and assets of the trust in accounting. It appears there is an annuity that pays $5,000/month. Is this expected to continue for life or some other duration?
2. One of the assets of the trust is a promissory note with an adjusted carry value of $1,705.00. It does not appear that any payments have been made to the trust on this note in many years. Need update on the status this note.
3. Disbursements Schedule indicates that various assets were purchased directly by the trust or reimbursed to the purchasers during this account period including a washer and dryer, various furniture items, and computer and accessories; however, these assets do not appear to be listed as new Property on Hand. The POH figure for the misc. personal items has not changed from the last account.

Therefore, need assets listed going forward as POH. Also, need clarification regarding the need for these purchases. Specifically, a washer and dryer were authorized to be purchased in 2011 for $1,438.00 (according to Order Approving 8th Account filed 7/20/11. Was there a need for new appliances so soon?

		File 3 - Rodriguez

Opposition to Motion to Terminate Further Proceedings and Discharge of Personal Representative filed 06/24/2015 by Christine M. Murphy, Deputy Attorney General, states on May 27, 2015, the personal representative of decedent Elvira Rodriguez, Joel Murillo, filed a "Motion to Termination (sic) Further Proceedings and Discharge of Personal Representative". While the Department of Health Care Services (Department) was served with the motion, counsel for the Department was not and did not receive a copy of the motion until mid-June. Department opposes the granting of Motion on the grounds that the Judgment and Judgment Lien against petitioner Joel Murillo, as personal representative, has not been satisfied.

Department obtained a judgment against Joel Murillo, as representative of the Estate of Elvira Rodriguez, on August 9, 2009 in Shewry v. Murrillo, Fresno Superior Court Case No. 08CECG03103DRF. Attached here to as Exhibit A is a copy of the Notice of Entry of Judgment and Judgment in that case. Subsequently, a Judgment Lien was recorded against the estate property of decedent at 10651 E. Fantz Ave. Del Rey, California, 93616 (Estate Property). Attached hereto as Exhibit B is a copy of the Judgment lien. The lien remains on the estate property and has not been satisfied by the petitioner.

After the filing of the judgment lien, Joel Murillo initiated another action to probate the estate property of the decedent Elvira Rodriguez. (Matter of Elvira Rodriguez, Fresno Superior Court, Case No. 14CEPR00329.) In the later action, the Court issued an order dated 06/09/2014, determining that the estate property of Elvira Rodriguez succeed to the beneficiary of the Will, Angelita Garcia.

Department opposes the granting of the present motion on the grounds that the judgment against petitioner Joel Murillo, as personal representative in the above-entitled matter, and the judgment lien, have not been satisfied. Thus, any order of discharge would not be appropriate without satisfaction of the judgment and lien.

Further, denial of the motion to discharge Joel Murillo, as personal representative, will preserve the Department's claim and avoid further litigation. Department is concerned that because of the multiple proceedings probating the estate property there may be a later challenge by Angelita Garcia to the legitimacy of the Department's lien against the Estate Property. The Department wants to avoid the need for a Court action pursuant to Welfare and Institutions Code section 14009.5 against Angelita Garcia as a recipient of estate property or an action for payment from the personal representative. Thus, the Department respectfully requests that the Court deny the motion seeking to terminate further proceedings and to discharge Joel Murillo as personal representative until the judgment is satisfied by either settlement involving the beneficiary of the Estate Property, recognition of the lien by Angelita Garcia, or payment of the Department's claim.

Also, the parties are presently in settlement discussions regarding the satisfaction of the Department's Judgment and lien. Department, thus, requests that the Court continue this motion to allow for the entry of a settlement agreement addressing the issues raised by the outstanding judgment and requests a continuance until at least August 14, 2015 for the drafting of said settlement agreement.

For the foregoing reasons, Department respectfully requests the Court deny the motion or, in the alternative, continue the motion to allow for the entry of settlement agreement.

Objection to Proposed Distribution of Personal Property filed 9/22/15 by Joseph Balagno states he did not sign the settlement agreement. He agrees with all terms with the exception of the distribution of the personal property. In addition to the items being distributed to him, Joseph Dale Balagno should receive the following items that his father wanted him to have:

- 1965 Chevy Pickup
- 1986 Harley Davidson Sportster
- 1985 Harley Davidson
- Helmet, gloves, jacket
- 1/3 of the unclaimed property with the State Controller.

Joseph Dale Balagno has been told that he cannot receive the guns. If he cannot receive the guns, they should be distributed to his mother, Sarah Roberts, so they can ultimately be distributed to his children when they are old enough.

Declaration of Attorney Lance Armo filed 9/29/15 (Attorney for beneficiaries Linda Balagno and Lori Brown) states he has reviewed the objection with his clients. In light of said objection, his clients no longer agree to any further distribution of funds or personal items until and unless Joseph Balagno and his clients agree in writing to the distribution pursuant to the settlement agreement.

Further, his clients hereby request that the 1965 pickup located in the garage of Joseph Balagno's residence be turned over to the Public Administrator for the pendency of this matter.

Mr. Armo will not be present on 10/8/15 as he will be attending the State Bar Annual Meeting and Convention.
