Petition for Visitation

Rebecca, 11	PEGGY BRADBURY , maternal grandmother, is Petitioner.		NEEDS/PROBLEMS/COMMENTS: CONTINUED FROM 10/01/13 Minute Order from 10/01/13 states: Ms. Baker-Grumprecht-Davies is appearing as counsel for Melissa Russell. The court orders that an evaluation be conducted for the purpose of determining how visitation should start between the children and Ms. Bradbury. Waivers of confidentiality are obtained from the parties for the release of information from the therapists. Ms. Bradbury is ordered to provide Ms. Baker-Grumprecht-Davies and the Court the relevant documents regarding her participation in therapy. The Court investigator is ordered to conduct an investigation of the parties.  1. Proof of service on the Notice of Hearing filed 09/04/13 indicates that the Notice of Hearing was mailed to the guardian's attorney and not to the guardian. Further, the proof of service does not indicate that a copy of the Petition for Visitation was served along with the Notice of Hearing. Service to an attorney is insufficient pursuant to California Rule of Court 7.51 and Probate Code § 1214. Need proof of service by mail at least 15 days before the hearing to Guardian, Melissa Russell.
Eva, 8	MELISSA RUSSELL , paternal grandmother, was appointed Guardian of the Person and Estate on 08/09/10. Letters of Guardianship were issued on 08/26/10.

Petitioner states that she had a good relationship with the father until his death in May 2010. After the father's death, the paternal grandmother, Melissa Russell, was appointed guardianship. Initially, Petitioner's relationship with the guardian was good and Petitioner visited with the children frequently and the children spent all holidays with Petitioner. 			File 2 – Pitkin

2 Rebecca Lee Ann Dell Pitkin and Eva Jane Carolyn Pitkin (GUARD/PE)

Guardian's Responsive Declaration in Opposition of Petition for Visitation filed 09/25/13 states: Petitioner's petition for visitation is misleading. Petitioner did have some visitation with the girls approximately every 6 weeks or so while their father was still alive. The visitation did continue for a short time after Justin's death. However, she did not have extensive visits with the girls as she alleges in her Petition. Further, the guardian's relationship with Petitioner was strained at best and the guardian ultimately determined that it would be detrimental to the girls to have any unsupervised visits with Petitioner, due to Petitioner's behavior. On 08/24/11, guardian's attorney sent a letter to Petitioner notifying her that any future visits would need to be supervised and at the discretion of a therapist. Guardian came to the decision to not allow Petitioner unsupervised visits after she insisted that she discuss paternity and other issues with them that were not age appropriate and undermining to the guardian. This started happening in 2010, just after the father passed away. Guardian has attached numerous text messages to her Response to show the court the type of messages she received from Petitioner. In the messages, Petitioner goes from being angry to nice and then sad. Many of the messages were threatening to the guardian with Petitioner calling guardian a "liar" and stating that she would "kick my ass". On a phone call, Petitioner blurted out to Rebecca that Justin was not her father. Upon that occurring, Guardian took the phone from Rebecca and has not allowed Petitioner to communicate with the girls since. Rebecca was 8 years old when this occurred and had lost both of her parents within the last year. At no time has Petitioner asked for visitation under the conditions Guardian set forth in her letter of 08/24/11. Instead she has continually harassed Guardian via cell phone.

Guardian states that the only reason Justin was not initially on Rebecca's birth certificate is because she was born before he and Michelle were married and Justin had not signed the Declaration of Paternity when the nurse came in with the birth certificate forms. Michelle listed Justin as Rebecca's father in her baby book and never told Justin or Rebecca that he was not her father. After Michelle's death, Justin petitioned the Court for a Judgment of Paternity so that everything was legal and there was no question of his paternity. The Judgment was granted on 05/21/10 (just 11 days after Justin's death), and Rebecca's birth certificate has since been amended listing Justin as her father.

Petitioner's behavior and the statements she makes when she is angry are the reason Guardian does not believe it is in the girls' best interest to have visitation with Petitioner in an unsupervised setting. Initially, Guardian wanted the girls to have a continuing relationship with their mother's family, however, as time went on, Guardian's interactions with Petitioner showed her instability and Guardian chose to limit visitation to a supervised setting. The important thing is what Petitioner did not tell the Court. She did not attach any writings between us because they were harmful to her request. She also did not mention Guardian's letter dated 08/24/11 stating that only supervised visits would be allowed moving forward.

Guardian requests the Court deny Petitioner's request for visitation with the children in its entirety. Although they miss their parents greatly, they have adjusted to their new lives and attend therapy every other Friday instead of once per week as they had in the beginning. The girls do not need the horrors of their parent's death brought up in an unhealthy manner such as Petitioner has historically displayed. The girls should not be subjected to the behavior that Petitioner displays or the hurtful things she openly says when she is angry. If the Court feels that the girls should have contact with Petitioner at this point, then that visitation should be in a therapeutic setting with the children's therapist with all costs of these therapeutic sessions being the responsibility of Petitioner.
