File 5 – Robles-Ordonez

Opposition to Petition for Termination of Guardianship filed 10/30/12 by Rachel Heredia, guardian, states: The minor, Christopher, has resided with her since he was two days old. Christopher's mother is incarcerated and Christopher was born while she was in prison. The mother consented to objector becoming Christopher's guardian and has expressed gratitude to objector for caring for him. On May 22, 2012, the mother wrote a letter stating that she would prefer that Christopher be placed with his biological father, Petitioner, Paulo Avila DeLaCruz. That letter apparently prompted Mr. DeLaCruz to petition to terminate objectors guardianship of Christopher. Objector states that she never believed Mr. DeLaCruz was Christopher's father, but she has allowed Christopher to visit with he and his wife because the mother requested that she do so. Objector states that she doesn't understand why the mother has changed her mind about the guardianship, but states that she is vulnerable to influences since she is incarcerated.

Mr. DeLaCruz voluntarily took a paternity test and the results definitively indicate that he is not Christopher's biological father. Christopher has lived with objector and her husband since he was 2 days old. They have taken good care of him and he is a happy, well-adjusted child. Objector states that she loves Christopher very much and wants to continue being his guardian.

Points and Authorities filed in connection with the Objection states that the court must make a finding by substantial evidence that it would be in the best interest of the child to terminate the guardianship. Objector states that the Petitioner has presented no evidence that terminating the guardianship would be in Christopher's best interest. To the contrary, the mediator has recommended that the child remain with Objector because of the healthy, happy home she provides. Objector states that the petition should be denied.

The mother was clean during a small part of those years, but when she came back to Fresno in December 2011, she dropped off the children and went straight to the streets. Petitioner is concerned that once the mother finds out she will not be receiving cash aid for the children, she will come and pick them up, take them to the streets, and to abject danger.	Recommendation:

Petitioner describes violence from the mother's husband in front of the children and that there were times that he made the children sleep in the car in the driveway instead of the house because of fighting with the mother. He was ultimately incarcerated for beating the mother badly, but she maintained a relationship with him during his incarceration.	File 10 – Marshall & Aguilera
