Aff.Mail	Status Report filed on 12/4/15 states As the Court is likely aware from other status reports, the person who prepares the necessary documents for the accounts is currently covering both her duties and the duties of another staff member who had to take a sudden medical retirement. She is also training the replacement for another staff member, which further consumes her available time. She has already had to prepare an account on behalf of the former conservator. That account has not even been resolved yet, and is set for hearing on 1/20/16.

Attorney MAROIS, KIM (of Santa Rosa, Ca., for Joachim Voss – Executor)

Probate Status Hearing Re: Filing Oregon Status

DOD: 04/13/2010	JOACHIM VOSS, was appointed Executor with full IAEA authority and bond of $300,000.00. Minute Order of 10/14/2015 set this Status Hearing for the Filing of Oregon Status. Minute Order states: Status Report is to be filed by 12/07/2015 with attached exhibit of the filed Oregon petition. Status Report Regarding Adoption of Testamentary Trust Provisions Approved by California Superior Court in Oregon filed 12/04/2015 states at the Status Conference on 10/14/2015, this Court scheduled a further Status Conference for 12/09/2015, and ordered that by 12/07/2015, a status report be filed with this Court with, at minimum, a stamped endorsed filed copy of the Oregon Petition for Instructions to adopt and approve the terms of the testamentary trusts approved by the California Superior Court. Executor's counsel hereby provides the following status report to the Court. This Court, by its Order filed July 18, 2012 (the "Distribution Order"), established the terms of the testamentary trusts for Decedent's daughters, Claire Atsuko Baltasar, sometimes also known as Claire Asuko Jeciel Baltasar ("Claire"), born 09/24/1993 and a resident of the Philippines; Nicole Vargas Mairongo ("Nicole") born 10/26/1999 and a resident of Spain; and Dana Zsofia Fujisaka Calderon Montoya, sometimes known as Dana Zsofia Fujisaka Calderon ("Dana") born 09/26/2003 and a resident of Colombia. Please see additional page	NEEDS/PROBLEMS/COMMENTS:

		File 3 – Fujisaka

The Distribution Order also appointed Exchange Bank of Santa Rosa, California, as the trustee of each of the testamentary trusts. It further ordered distribution of the bulk of Decedent's California estate, in trust, to Exchange Bank as the trustee of the three testamentary trusts, one for each of the Decedent's daughters. The testamentary trusts terminate by their terms in favor of the beneficiary when the beneficiary attains age 21. Claire attained the age of 21 in 2014, and her testamentary trust has since terminated and been distributed to her. The two remaining testamentary trusts for Nicole and Dana continue to be managed by Exchange Bank.

The Executor has held the California Probate open pending the sale of the properties subject to the Oregon probate on the theory that it would be most expedient to sell the Oregon properties and upon their sale, close the Oregon estate and distribute the proceeds into the California probate estate for distribution to the residuary beneficiaries as established in the Distribution order. The Executor believes that the interests of Decedent's daughters are best served if the Oregon properties are sold through the Probate in Oregon because of the inherent difficulties of coordinating a sale with the trustee in the United States and or more non-English speaking beneficiaries in on or more foreign counties. The Executor of the California and Oregon probates also believes that the interests of Decedent's daughters are best served if the proceeds of the Oregon probate are distributed to any over-age 21 beneficiary outright and in trust to Exchange Bank as the Trustee of the existing trusts established for any beneficiary under-age 21 at the time of distribution in accordance with the carefully constructed provisions of the testamentary trusts approved by this Court.

This Court has instructed the Executor to close the California probate. The Executor and the guardians ad litem ("GALs") appointed for the minor beneficiaries have agreed that the best way to close the California estate is to seek to have the Oregon Court adopt the terms of the Distribution Order as the terms of the testamentary trusts with Exchange Bank continuing to serve as the trustee of said trusts. Accordingly, this Court ordered the California Executor to seek the Oregon Court's adoption of the testamentary trust provisions as established by the Distribution Order.

The Executor's probate counsel in Oregon, Samuel E. Tucker, filed a Petition for Instructions as requested by this Court with the Oregon Probate Court on November 25, 2015. A true and correct copy of the endorsed filed Petition for Instructions is attached hereto as Exhibit A. Said Petition for Instructions along with a Notice for Filing Objections to Petition for Instructions was served by mail on 12/01/2015. A true and correct copy of the Affidavit of Mailing Notice for Filing Objections to Petition for Instructions is attached hereto as Exhibit B. Pursuant to the Notice for Filing Objections to Petition for Instructions, any objections must be filed with the Oregon Probate Court on or before 12/22/2015.

It is the understanding that if no objections are filed with the Oregon Court to the Petition for Instructions on or before 12/22/2015, Oregon counsel intends to present a Limited Judgment Approving the Petition for Instructions to the Oregon Probate Court for its consideration and approval. In anticipation that the Oregon court will adopt the terms of the testamentary trusts as approved by the California Superior Court, Petitioner will file a Final Account and Petition for Final Distribution for this estate prior to 12/31/2015.

File 13 – McCoon

Status Report Regarding Inventory & Appraisal and Request for Additional Time filed 11/30/2015, continued:

- As Heather Kruthers is assigned to probate matters, Libby Hellwig who appeared at the 10/29/2015 hearing on her behalf would obviously not have the breadth of knowledge of the case;
- This is not an estate that the Public Administrator sought to administer; rather, it is an estate that was referred to her;
- In addition, this is an estate with family conflict;
- When she was first appointed, the Public Administrator understood that the house needed to be sold quickly to avoid vandalism, and that the family wanted it sold;
- Therefore, that was her priority and she obtained a partial I & A and sold the house;
- There is a tremendous amount of property still to inventory;
- To assist the Court in understanding the Public Administrator's need for additional time, attached is Exhibit A containing a list of jewelry that must be appraised [consisting of a 7-page itemized list of jewelry];
- There are also antiques and 400 oil paintings that must be appraised by a specialist in those areas;
- This is all in addition to the usual household furniture and furnishings that must be appraised by the probate referee;
- Given the above information, the Public Administrator requests a 90-day continuance to file what she hopes will be the Final Inventory and Appraisal.

Note for background: Status Report Regarding Inventory & Appraisal filed 10/29/2015 states:

- A partial inventory was filed on 5/13/2015 [showing real property asset appraised at $385,000.00]; a final inventory has not been filed;
- The remaining items are personal property; there are antiques and paintings that were put in storage by one of the heirs;
- Some of the remaining items will be sold at auction, and the paintings will be appraised by an appraiser who specializes in art;
- To allow time to complete the final appraisal, it is respectfully requested that the next status hearing for this matter be set 90 days from the date of this hearing;
- In addition, it is requested that this matter be continued without the required appearance of County Counsel, as the attorney who would attend is conducting an employment hearing that day and time.
