DOD: 12/8/1988	KENNETH WALL , son and Administrator, is Petitioner.	NEEDS/PROBLEMS/COMMENTS: Note: Petition seeks to distribute a share of the estate to MAXIMILLANO GODINEZ , Administrator of the Estate of Kelli Michelle Godinez, Case 07CEPR01353 . Court records show MAXIMILLANO GODINEZ, JR. , who was represented by Attorney SHELDON FEIGEL , was appointed Successor Administrator on 10/23/2008 with a bond of $250,000.00 to be posted, which was not posted and Letters of Administration never issued to him, thus the Estate of Kelli Michelle Godinez is not in a position to receive assets from the instant estate, which of necessity delays final distribution. Court has set a Status Hearing on the following date for the failure to proceed with administration in the Estate of Kelli Michelle Godinez, Case 07CEPR01353 : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Wednesday, January 21, 2015 at 9:00 a.m. in Dept. 303 for failure to file proof of bond/issuance of letters; failure to file inventory and appraisal; and failure to file first account or petition for final distribution. Note: Consistent with the Court's recent practice, if Court determines an informal accounting of the closing reserve is warranted, Court will set a Status Hearing as follows: Wednesday, June 17, 2015 at 9:00 a.m. in Dept. 303 for an Informal Accounting of the $35,000.00 Closing Reserve. Pursuant Local Rule 7.5, if the document noted above is filed 10 days prior to the date listed, the hearing will be taken off calendar and no appearance will be required. Filing of the informal accounting of closing reserve will not generate a new hearing date.

Status Report (unverified) filed by Attorney Boyajian on 10-28-14 states: The settlement funds from the Black Farmers Discrimination Administrators had to be claimed by 8-30-14. The Court's order of 8-28-14 was submitted to the Black Farmers Discrimination Administrators and to the Bank of America, Fig Garden Financial Center to implement the Court's orders. They spent about 2 weeks to a month with Bank of America attempting to implement the orders. The local bank stated they could establish a blocked account for the funds, but then they determined after a call to their legal department that they couldn't.

The Black Farmers Discrimination Administrator sent a check for $50,000.00 instead of $62,500.00 (as stated in the Court order) because $12,500.00 was paid directly to the IRS. The bank would not accept the check because it had a different amount than stated in the order.

Because the check had to be deposited before 9-25-14, it was incumbent that it be deposited or the check would void. Therefore, the check was deposited at the Special Administrator's branch where his personal funds are deposited in a separate account in the name of the Estate of Wesley Logan at the Union Bank at Shaw and Marks. At this time, Union Bank is awaiting a Court Order to block the account.

Mr. Boyajian requests to continue the special administration for a reasonable time to implement the Court's orders and distribute funds to Rachel Graves.

Minute Order 10-29-14: Mr. Boyajian will submit order to deposit money from proceeds into blocked account. Special Letters extended to 12-17-14.

Status Report (unverified) filed by Attorney Boyajian on 12-9-14 states: The sole asset in this matter is settlement proceeds from a litigation lawsuit involving Black Farms v. USDA. If the settlement proceeds were not legally claimed by 8-30-14, they would be extinguished. The Court orders of 8-28-14 were submitted to the Black Farmers Discrimination Administrators and to the Bank of America, Fig Garden Financial Center to implement the Court orders. They requested that Bank of America open an account and that the Black Farmers Administrators deposit the settlement check directly into the account. They spent three weeks to a month attempting to implement the orders. The local Bank of America determined that they couldn't establish a blocked account.

The Black Farmers Discrimination Administrator sent a check for $50,000.00 directly to the Special Administrator. Bank of America would not accept the check because it was for $50,000.00 and the Court order was for $62,500.00. This is because the Black Farmers Administrator had paid $12,500.00 to the IRS.

The check was void if not negotiated by 9-25-14; therefore, it was deposited with the Special Administrator's bank, but in a separate account from his personal funds. The account was opened in the name of Estate of Wesley Logan at Union Bank at Shaw and Marks. At this time, Union Bank is awaiting a Court order which would allow them to block the account.

Attorney's Status Report (Continued): On 10-29-14, the Court extended the Special Administration until 12-17-14 and ordered the account containing the settlement payment be blocked. Mr. Boyajian states they called Mr. Graves on numerous occasions requesting that he sign the Letters of Administration and had planned on submitting the Court Orders with the signed Letters. Mr. Graves has refused to sign the Letters wo orders were submitted to the Court Clerk without the needed Letters to implement the Court order as soon as possible.

Mr. Graves is upset because Bank of America did not implement the deposit at their bank location and he seems to be blaming the attorney for Bank of America's actions. The honorable Judge Robert Oliver at Mr. Graves' attorneys' urging explained the entire process to Mr. Graves involving how the funds were to be transferred to the proper individuals. Mr. Graves' attorney had explained on many different occasions the legal process and in open Court Mr. Graves' attorney requested that Judge Oliver explain the process. Mr. Graves seemed to understand the Judge's explanation.

Mr. Graves believes that since the funds are in a bank account that he and his wife should be able to access such funds without further intervention by the Court. He believes that his attorney is perpetuating the matter and prolonging the process. At this time, there is friction and differences of opinion as to how to continue and resolve the matter. The friction was a result of the attorney discovering that Mr. Graves had withdrawn funds from the account, which is completely at odds with the first Court order.

Mr. Graves has requested that he be allowed to speak to the current judge to rectify and complete the process. The attorney has no problem with Mr. Graves speaking directly to the judge.

The attorney requests that Mr. Graves be ordered to cooperate in resolving this matter so the funds can be allocated to the proper individual. In the alternative, the attorney requests that the Court remove Mr. Graves as Special Administrator and appoint a reputable and responsible alternative.
