How to Request Entry of Default In a Paternity Case

WHEN TO USE THIS PACKET

These forms can be used to ask the court to enter the default of the other parent in a paternity case.

If you have had the other parent served with the Summons, Petition to Establish Parental Relationship and the UCCJEA, and they have not filed their Response within 30 days of being served, you may ask for an Entry of Default.

The other parent may file a Response at any time before the Default is entered – even after the 30 days have passed. Once the default has been entered by the court it becomes much more difficult for the other parent to file their Response.

Entry of Default is not a judgment. You must follow through and obtain a final judgment. Obtaining a judgment requires you to complete additional forms that are available as separate packets.

If you have something else you want the court to know about your case, write it down on another piece of paper and attach it to this form.
- Read and follow the INSTRUCTIONS section carefully. There is nothing to fill out, but there is information here that will help you. "Eligible" means "allowed." Most people filling out this form are probably eligible, but if you answered YES to any of the questions in Step 1, you are not allowed to use this form.

Make sure to attach check stubs for the last 2 months. Cross out your social security numbers.
