The Fresno Superior Court was notified late Wednesday afternoon that two employees have had contact with a person who tested positive for the Coronavirus (COVID-19). Both employees work within the B.F. Sisk Courthouse, located at 1130 O Street. Though the employees themselves have not yet tested positive, the Fresno Superior Court has closed the B.F. Sisk Courthouse location and has sent all staff home until further notice, pending the results of the employees testing. This action was taken with the health and safety of the court employees, justice partners and the public in mind.

The Fresno Superior Court has limited operations in the midst of the public health emergency, and has taken a variety of precautions in hopes of slowing the spread of COVID-19.

That includes suspension of most criminal and civil jury trials, holding most hearings via phone and video, reducing the number of employees in the courthouse each day and implementing enhanced cleaning procedures.

Please visit the Court's website for further updates.
